LADY DEFENDS CLERGY.

Editor World: I would like to ask your correspondent in this morning's issue, signed "Churchman," to attend chool, Bible classes, etc., which are leld almost daily, and he will see and hear his query answered as to "what are the clergy doing?" He will find bishops, priests and deacons attending to the duties of their calling without any special excitement or ostentation, just as they did before Torrey and Alexander came; and as they will continue to do long after these gentlemen

Bew People Realize the Importance of Good Digestion Until It Is Lost.

Many people suffer from dyspepsia and do not know it. They feel intant, out of sorts, peevish, do not aleep well, do not have the inclination and energy for physical or mental work they once had, but at the same time do not feel any particular pain or distress in the stomach. Yet all this is the -esuit of
