Capt. Sphinx, b.g., by Sphinx, Robert Kettle, Sarnia (Ketmare, Darkey Hal, driven by Jack Rombough, took his measure easily. In fact, fourth money was the best he could get out of the race, as Capt. Byrl Wilkes, br.g., by Wilkes, George W. M. Sphinx and Byrl Wilkes each beat him in the summary. Much disappointment was caused by the Toronto mare, Lady May, being drawn from the race, as a special car was run here from Toronto, loaded with horsemen, who came to see her measure strides with the other fast steppers. The reason given for her withdrawal was that she nad a cold, but many who saw her at the trace are of the opinion that she is all and her owner missed an opportunity old Maid, b.m., by Mount Bri-However, she was not started that may not present itself again, as the time made by the winner should not hang Lady May up by any means. W. M. McDonald of Picton, owner of Togo, was firm in the belief that his 3-year-old would take the measure of the great Ian Bar in the stake for 3-year-old pacers, but he is probably of a different opinion now, as Prangley's colt marched off with the race in straight heats in time phenomenally fast, considering the track was not what would be called fast.
Russ McGirr's good youngster, Bert Keswick, was second in the first heat quite handly, but a break at the first turn killed any chance he may have had in the second. When he broke he swerved out interfering with Togo ner, who is playing a very accurate and nomenally fast, considering the track

The meeting just finished has been a splendid one. The racing was extra suspicion of crookedness for which the association is to be commended. I. A. A. WEEKLY SPORTS. First Races of the Season Held Last Night.

The I.A.A. held the first of their summer weekly sports last night at Long Adkins Has Curves.

BALTIMORE, July 3.—It looked as the Jersey City was due to win to-day's game up to the seventh inning, when the locals made three runs. Outside of the fifth and sixth innings the visitors could do little or nothing with Adkins' curves. If a score; Butt. R.H.E. J. City. R.H.E. Tandem, 15 years and under—Brandanscury 1, Dunster. The first two players to face Kissinger, Thoney and Mitchell, cracked out two-baggers. Phyle fanned, but Schaffy came in with a nice single, Two runs resulted, and they looked big to the fans and players. With this early lead it was thought Toronto would surely land on top. Buffalo could not touch Moffitt for the first four innings. In the fifth McConnell touched him for a single, Corcoran sacrificed and Ryan's single, secred the first because Vision to the same straight of the same st single scored the first-baseman. singer's hit to Phyle put Ryan down to second, making two outs and but one run. Nattress met the ball squarely on its trade-mark, and Wiedensaul made the mistake of running in for it. It sailed yards above his head, Nattress just having time enough to go the rounds with Kissinger loping in ahead of him. Gettman ended the inning. These three runs put Buffalo in front, and they kept going farther away as the game progressed. A change of pitchers might have been a good thing to have tried at this time. Kissinger worked his head off, and after the first inning had nearly every batter at his mercy, cases being few where more than three an inning faced him. Score:
