sons Bank v. Brown, the Divisiona Court disposed of a point of considerable nterest. The defendant, a married woman, tave an accommodation note, which was sferred to the plaintiffs, with notice hat it was so given. The County Court Judge of York gave leave to plaintiffs to sign immediate judgment under rule 739. The defendant appealed to this court. The ecial endorsement on the writ read as lows: "The defendant is a married woman, and is possessed of separate estate contracted in respect of claim herein and contracted in respect of claim herein set forth with regard thereto." It was contended that this endorsement was not sufficient, because it was not alleged that she was possessed of separate estate at the time she gave the note. The court declined to give effect to such contention, and dismissed the appeal, with costs. Thus, it a married woman chooses to make accommodation notes, she must expect to be made liable for them.

DISPUTE BETWEEN LAWYERS. DISPUTE BETWEEN LAWYERS.
In Mathesonev. Roche, the dispute was bereen solicitors, the plaintin's contending at the defendant promised them half of e amount of his clients' ciaim against i absconding debtor in return for their vising him the moment their client had ttled with the debtor, who was in jail at e time under a capias issued by plainis. The County Judge found in favor of e plaintin's for $107, which is half the sount that the defendant obtained for i client. The defendant declared he had ver made such an agreement, and the nrt thought that it was not established evidence, and allowed the appeal and missed the action, with costs.

SIR RICHARD'S CUTE LAWYER.

SIR RICHARD'S CUTE LAWYER. SIR RICHARD'S CUTE LAWYER.

In Johnston v. Cartwright, the defendant no less a personage than the celebrated night. The County Court dismissed the tion, and the piaintiff appeals. The aintiff held a chattel mortgage, and upon sale of the goods in the store in question e defendant claimed $250 rent que him landlord. The piaintiff paid the amount, celving an "undertaking" that it would refunded under certain circumstances, is undertaking is so skilfully drawn that e court at the time of rising, and after aring elaborate argument, were divided to its meaning. To each counsel in the e the meaning was perfectly clear, though a adoption of either's contention, of irse, meant death to the other. Judgnt was reserved. Sir Richard did not aself draw the undertaking.

The Spurgeon Memorial Orphans' Home

No one has laid the universal church under such lasting obligation as the late C.

H. Spurgeon has done by his self-sacrificing zeal in preaching and applying the truths of the Gospel during a ministry extending over 40 years. The Christian public of this city, as a whole, have never as yet thad an opportunity of paying a loving tribute to his memory. At last such an opportunity has come. The work that laid closest to his heart was that of caring for orphan children. He said: "We will work for them through our orphanage as long as our brain can think and our heart can love and our pen can write. Neither sickness nor weariness shall tempt us to flag in this sacred enterprise." The great and good man has gone to his reward, but these orphans are still with us. At the suggestion of many American and Canadian visitors, Mr. Charlesworth, the head master of the Orphanage, and a choir of the orphanage of many American and canadian visitors, Mr. Charlesworth, the head master of the Orphanage, and a choir of the orphanage and hand-bell rining in a most artistic manner. They will be in Toronto the first week in November. As there have been, or are, in the Orphanage 756 Episcopalian, 552 Baptist, 191 Congregational, 166 Wesleyan, 31 Presbyterian, 15 Brethren, 4 Bible Christian, 4 Roman Cathole, 2 Moravian, 2 Salvation Army, and 22c children, whose religious profession is not specified, we have no doubt that all sections of the Christian church in this city will do their best to honor the memory by patronizing the choir during their visit.

Only those who have help the Orphanage research and land bell the Orphanage and the choir during their visit.

Only those who have help the Orphanage research and land bell the Orphanage and lambs in moderate supply and steady. Export sheep sold at 3c to 3%c per with the sections of the Christian church in this city will do their best to honor the memory by patronizing the choir during their visit.

Henry A. King & Co., 12 King-street east, received the following despatch to day from Chicago: The shorts made a determined att. mpt to stop the upward trend of prices in wheat to-day and succeeded, with the aid of some alarming rumors, which they distributed freely, in breaking the price of Dec. nearly a cent. They were aided in their attempt by the cables, which, for Liverpool, were only firm, and for Berlin slightly lower. Wyland says the wheat sold is all going into strong nands. A good many of the local houses were inclined to be more conservative in their predictions of a further present rise, and their country customers took the hint and their country customers took the hint and their orders to buy were consequently fewer and smaller, while a good many of them thought it prudent to take profits at the present level. However, at is not believed that this sort of selling can hold the raise which is bound to come back much longer. Bradstreets' reported the world's increase at 595,000 busnels. Northwest receipts were 1187 cars, against 1, 225 cars hast year. December closed at 60%c .

Corn and oats and provisions held about steady, showing that the panic for taking profits was not very widespread. We look for substantial advances within the next few days.

Sheep and lambs in moderate supply and steady. It is a steady sheep sol beerish again. The only export business reported is 15 loads taken at New York. There is a general increase in outside trade, but market is very strained and nervous and liable to quick fluctuations. We feel inclined to buy on breaks. Provisions—Market opened easier on large receipts of hogs at all packing points. Western packers sold Jan, pork. Commission houses bought in short stuff. Cudahy bought Jan, pork early, but later was a free seller. Packers bought Oct, ribs and sold Jan. Anglo-American Packing Co. sold large quantities of Oct, ribs. John Cudahy's brokers sold Jan. ribs freely at $2.50. Market closed weak.

This stock is the cheapest on the market at the present price.

From authentic reports, I am pleased to inform the public that about $150,000 worth of ore has already been blocked out in this mine.

The ore is free-milling, and the cost of mining and milling for same will not exceed $4 per ton.

The original holders of the stock, $1 shares fully paid up and non-assessable, are holding their stock at $5.

Parties purchasing this stock at the present price should realize a handsome profit in a few months.
