THE CONFISCATED LICENSES.
License Commissioners only did it was their duty when they refused renew the licenses of the seven hotel who have openly and repeatedly vio-d the law. Public opinion on the perance question is strong enough to and the enforcement of the license as they now stand. But the cause morality will not be served if the s are allowed by a subterfuge to in possession of their licenses. This it to be guarded against, although it will be difficult to prevent the licenses renewed in the name of some ing friend. In cases of this kind, an offender has been deprived of license for infraction of the law, the se ought to be either permanently elled, or it should be sold at auction the highest bidder. Such a course id prevent the license going back in the hands of the offender, unless he his full market value. If the seven seated licenses were put up at auction they would realize a substantial The license law should be amended to provide for this being done.

VIRTE IN HIGH PLACES.
English people feel a just pride in the of those in the highest walks of nation. The character of Her esty the Queen, of Lord Tennyson his wife, of Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone, of Lord and Lady Salisbury and others in the same sphere, have a powerful inspiration for good to who speak our tongue and to other ies as well. Our neighbors to this can never get away, even if they ht to get away, from the influence the lives of the best of English and women exercise over them. If who are Canadians this influence is irect living force. As to the Gladstone influence, we have a near and ing illustration in the remarks of Aberdeen at Ottawa:

Mr. Gladstone's life in the present d past generation of English life has been in this direction. ow often have we seen him come to a room where some subject was ing discussed lightly and flippantly, d by his mere entrance all was anged.

BOARD OF TRADE GRATUITY FUND.

Tender of North American Life Assurance Co. for the Securities Accepted.

Under an act of the Dominion Parliament, recently passed, the trustees of the above fund were empowered to discontinue this branch of the Board's work and distribute the accumulated funds among the members entitled to the same.
The securities held by the trustees were offered to the public by advertisement and tenders for the same were opened and considered yesterday by the trustees.
The tender of the North American Life Assurance Company of this city for all of the said securities, being the highest, was accepted.
No better proof of the financial skill of the trustees, and of their prudent and careful management of the funds can be given than to mention the fact that a very handsome premium was paid for the securities, aggregating nearly $100,000.

That No Sympathetic Message

Can Be Sent Gladstone Family.

Chief Secretary Col. Jacobs of the Salvation Army and Brigadier Complin, editor of The War Cry, were greatly exercised yesterday because no telegram of condolence was sent to the Gladstone family from the Canadian Army.
"Mr. Gladstone," said Brigadier Complin, "recently invited General Booth to Harwarden Castle, and had a most sympathetic talk with him and I heartily wish we could show our appreciation of it." Commissioner Eva Booth, however, without whom the officials would do nothing, was out at sea, steaming towards Skagway, and couldn't be reached by any amount of wiring.
Editor Complin of The War Cry received a wire from Commissioner Eva Booth early yesterday, stating that, encouraged by the great success of Army work among the Chinese of San Francisco similar work would be instituted at Vancouver and Victoria as soon as suitable offers were obtained.
An Alleged Bigamous Baronet.
London, May 20.—William Runciman was remanded yesterday on the charge of marrying an actress, Agnes Ingiloville, while his first wife, Estelle, whom he married at Binghampton, N. Y., is alive.
The prisoner has been passing himself off as a baronet, under the name of Sir Gray Temple. When arrested he said his American marriage was not legal.

The Irishman's Story.

There were some sporty wheelmans telling stories at a club.

And each one told a better than the last.

One had made a "century" in three hours and a half.

Another said, "That wasn't very fast."

A Scotchman said he "coasted" down a hill just three miles long.

But Paddy wasn't satisfied with that.

He said that he had "coasted" twenty miles without a stop.

Walks of All Nations.

"The Walks of All Nations," in which the Spanish, French, German, Hebrew, Irish, American and other nationalities are represented, will be a special feature of the Rolly and Woods Company's performances at the Toronto Open House next week, and, if reports be true, it should be enough to fill the theatre to overflowing.
In addition, however, the management promises the strongest vaudeville organisation ever brought to Toronto by Rolly and Woods, there being no less than 28 specialists with the company, among them the three Franchonetti Sisters, from Hammerstein's Olympia, New York; the three Lane Sisters, the three Gaudin Sisters, the Deonzo Brothers, the Eldridges, Pat Rolly, Frank Ryan, Froebel and Kuge, the six Parisians, the four Champagne Quadrille Dancers and Mlle. Eubelle. During the engagement "bargain matinees" will be given on Thursday and Saturday and a special holiday matinee on the Queen's Birthday.

"The Princess Trebzoide."

The Cummings Opera Company will present "The Princess Trebzoide," one of the most popular "Cassino comic" operettas, at the Casino, Toronto, next week. Mr. Cummings promises a novelty in the form of a "bargain matinee" on Friday, the 19th inst., at 2 p.m., at which the full of the most laughable comedy, the brightest and most useful music, ballads, dances and other specialties, "The Princess of Trebzoide" is an expensive opera to produce, and yet Mr. Cummings promises one of the very brightest, most complete and entertaining performances his company has yet given. This burlesque opera, it is said, was selected on account of its merit and because it has never before been done at popular prices, and it furthermore gives the audience something new, that has not been played by any great opera company except the original company at the Casino, New York, after which it went to Toronto.
Mr. Cummings is the first one to secure this burlesque, and it is said to be one of the best of its class. Mr. Fred Solomon will appear as the Circus Clown, a comedy part after the style of his "Caddy" in "Erminie," in which he will undoubtedly be most amusing. Miss Eliza Crox, Sen-brook will appear in the title role, and Mr. Wilke, Mr. and Mrs. West and Miss Laura Moore will all have attractive roles, which will give them the best possible opportunities to display their ability. The opera will be staged with special scenery throughout, and the costumes will be particularly bright and attractive. On account of the Queen's Birthday coming on Tuesday, a special matinee will be given that day, instead of Wednesday.

At the Grand Next Week.

Roland Reed and his company will be the potent attraction at the Grand Opera House next week. The comedian will be seen in two of his best plays, "The Wrong Mr. Wright," which made such a decided hit here last season, and the other, "A Man of Ideas," which has been the popular actor has yet had. The former will be given the first four nights of the week and at the Saturday matinee. Friday and Saturday night the new play will be presented. The scene of "A Man of Ideas" is a thriving western town, over which a wave of "political reform" has just passed.
Fosco Wales, a former resident, now a New York promoter, returning to "work" a big trolley scheme, finds his task extremely difficult. The young reform Mayor cannot approach, even through his heart. He is in love with the promoter's daughter, but will not betray his trust, even when the alternative seems to be the loss of her hand.
But Mr. Rosenfeld cannot be serious long and nobody would ask him to be in writing a play for Mr. Reed. In the second act the trolley scheme is mixed up with a rehearsal for an out-of-doors performance of "As You Like It" by amateurs on the very site selected by Fosco for his new power house. In the third act the promoter falls a victim to the wiles of a wil-dow, and Comedius triumphs over political jobbery.
