Electronic Research Control of the larges and were shot.

New York, Sept. 29—In spite of the counter-attraction of the naval parade one of the largest crowds of the meeting attended the Gravesend races to-day. They got more than the usual amount of sensational feature, as Abuse and St. Clair, two fair-class in their respective races, fell, broke their legs and had to be shot. Both belonged to Fred Foster, and

JIM FEARNS BEAT BOBBY DOBBS.

Welterweight Battle at Buffalo
Results in a Big Surprise—
McMahon Beat Slattery.

Buffalo, Sept. 29.—Jim Ferns of Chicago got the decision over Bobby Dobbs in their 20-round contest at the Hawthorne A.C.
Annex in this city to-night. Ferns outboxed and outfought Dobbs all the way, the latter at no time showing championship form. Neither man showed a mark at the 20-round contest at the Hawthorne A.C. Annex in this city to-night. Ferns outboxed and outfought Dobbs all the way, the latter at no time showing championship form. Neither man showed a mark at the termination of the bout. Joe McMahon of Buffalo knocked out Robert Slattery of Little Falls in the fourth round of the pre-liminary. Fifteen hundred persons were present.

Little Falls in the fourth round of the preliminary. Fifteen hundred persons were present.

The fight was clever all the way, Ferns' superb blocking folling the negro in all his swings. The Rube punched terrifically and had Dobbs on the floor half a dozen times.

The betting was slightly in favor of Dobbs, who came back from England a month ago with a great record and only lost his first battle to Matty Matthews on a foul after 24 rounds. The men weighed in at 145 lbs. Ferns fights in St. Louis next Friday night and will return to meet Matthews here Oct. 14.

In the preliminary Joe McMahon, wno lost to Jimmy Smith on Tuesday night in Rochester, knocked out Dan Slattery of Little Falls in the third round.
