

McLeod, of Stratford ; Rev. R. Douglas Fraser, formerly of Toronto, and other Ministers. The Reverend Doctor Mackay, of Hull, England also on passing through the city on two occasions occupied the pulpit for two Sabbaths.

In the month of October, at the request of the Session, the Congregation elected ten additional Deacons; of those elected one declined to accept the office, and the following were, on the 27th October last, duly ordained to the office of Deacon, namely :

William C. Munderloh, George Hyde, James Slessor, James McGoun, John Laidlaw, James C. Wilson, Robert N. McCallum, David Robertson and Alexander Bremner.

The Session have also decided to ask the Congregation to elect five additional Elders, and this will be proceeded with in January next.

The Sabbath School is in vigorous operation, still under the superintendence of Mr. D. Morrice, assisted by Mr. Hugh Watson, and a good staff of Teachers ; a report of which will as usual, appear by itself.

The following is a Minute of Session re late John Campbell :

"The Session unanimously record their appreciation of the valuable services rendered to the Church by the late Mr. John Campbell. He became a member of it on 11th January, 1847, a Deacon on 6th January, 1850, and an Elder on 9th April, 1857. He was diligent and faithful as a Sabbath School teacher and office bearer of the Church.

"As a Member of Session for upwards of twenty years he enjoyed the confidence and warm esteem and affection of all his brethren."

ARCH. MCGOUN,

Session Clerk.
