At the regular meeting of the trades ried by the city council, but when it and labor council last night the civic coalyard bylaw was discussed at some length, and it was decided to take no chances at all on its being laid over side-tracked, ditched or otherwise disposed of. Steps will be taken at once to see that the bylaw goes to the people. It was resolved that every delegate who could possibly do so should be present at the special meeting of the city council Friday evening next, when the coal yard comes up for discussion.

George S. Gibbons, solicitor for the trades council, who was present, expressed the opinion that certain changes were necessary in the proposed coad yard bylaw. One delegate that that the dealers were perfectly satisfied to have a municipal coad yard here, but that the dealers were perfectly satisfied to have a municipal vard would be unable to do business.

An effort will be made also to have free school books. This matter has been brought up before and has been car-

25TH ANNUAL PICNIC

Enjoyable Outling. The Sunday school of the Gandier Presbyterian Church, Keldon, held its annual picnic in Ernest Kelsey's grove, which is always an ideal spot for an outing and the crowd thoroughly enjoyed every minute of the time spent there. During the afternoon the sports program of races kept the large audience intensely interested as each event was keenly contested.

After the races all sat down in picnic fashion, and had lunch together, and look forward to the repetition. This picnic has been an annual event in the neighborhood for over 25 years, and by the interest shown in it promises

Nerve Broken by Experiences Undergone In the Battle Around Lens.

CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, via London, Sept. 5.—By Stewart Lyon, Special Correspondent of the Canadian Press.—The famous Prussian Guard formations are warwary and despondent over their experiences during the last three weeks on this part of the front. A prisoner of a regiment attached to the fourth guard division, which holds the enemy line in the vicinity of Hill 70, says that the losses in his regiment have been very great. By our attack on the morning of Saturday the third battalion was so badly cut up that the first battalion had to be called on to take over part of the line. The officers of this battalion were not aware that our men held a certain trench well to the south of our front line. By their orders the Germans advanced up the trench until they came under the concentrated machine gun fire of the Canadians holding the trench. In a few minutes half of the company were wiped out.
