Missionary Says Situation Is Dr. Silcox Points to Individuals Serious Without Them.

At the First Methodist Church, on the NOT BORN AS EQUALS occasion of its missionary anniversary, two returned missionaries. Rev. J. W. Saunby of Japan and Rev. W. J. Morti- If They Are, Great Men of mer of China, spoke.

'The papers are so full of the greatest conflict ever fought that it is impossible for a word about the conditions, risings and rebellions to creep in edgewise in the dailies at the present time, therefore many are in ignorance of the therefore many are in ignorance of the stand the therefore many are in ignorance of the deplorable state of China," stated the Rev. W. J. Mortimer in the course of his sermon on China. "Neither can one limagine the hard task of the missionary to keep out of politics; one can only be a sympathetic neutral.

"The operation of the course of the limage of the course of the limage of the course of the limage of The over-population is one of the difficulties to contend with in China. Were it not for the constant rebellions, famine and floods, which carry away thousands every year, it would be a problem hard to solve. The educational weakness in China is great. Girls are almost totally neglected and the are almost totally neglected and the schools and funds presses home to those who have already sacrificed themselves to the spreading of the Gospel.

"It has been said of the Chinese in general that if they do not hear the word of God it is not their fault, the majority being only too anxious to listen, for hours at a time to a missionary. Many have accepted Buddhism merely to fill the need of a religion. They cannot live without a belief of some description, and we need more to represent the Christian faith and save many of the Chinese from the heathen fate of accepting whatever may happen to reach their ears first."

The urgent need of missionaries in Japan, as well as an increase in funds to carry on mission work was illustrated by Rey, J. W. Saunby, who told harrowing stories of the hard work of the missionaries and the trying conditions to contend with, and of the large field that is corn for workers. Per Saunby leads to the special property of the contend with, and of the large field that is corn for workers.
