Like Clam After Sixth.

After the sixth Ruth pitched air-tight wall, and despite Manager Mitchell's trategies, the Cubs never had a looken. They went out in order save in the inal inning, when, after one was out, Mitchell sent his reserves into the front ine. Merkle had sent a long fly to Whiteman, when Mitchell sent O'Fardell to bat for Pick. The Cub reserve atcher flied out ingloriously to Thomas. Deal caused a momentary revival of interest with a single over third, and McCabe was sent to run for him. Killinger put an end to the pastime by sending a long fly to right field, which looper caught after a hard run.

FIRST INNING.

Boston—Hooper was cheered as he ralked to the plate. Vaughn's first itch was a strike. Hooper bumped the econd offering down the first base line nd was out, Merkle to Vaughn. World's Series Receipts

CHICAGO, Sept. 5 .- War made its hand felt in the attendance and receipts of the first game of the world's series. The attendance today of 19,274 was nearly 13,000 less than the crowd which jammed Comiskey Park for the initial contest between the Giants and White Sox a year ago. The receipts, $30,348, were less than half the amount taken in for the first game a year ago, as the prices this year were reduced, the choice box seats selling for $3 as compared with $5 in 1917. The figures on the opening games of today and a year
