CAPITAL, ONE OF 4 PARTNERS, HAS CONTROL MONOPOLY

Former Liberal Labor Minister Delivers Remarkable Speech on "The Four Parties to Industry" to Toronto Audience.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
TORONTO, March 13.—"Four parties are necessary to industry, capital, labor, management, the community; is there anything in their present relations suggestive of a partnership? So far as control goes, it is all monopoly on the part of capital," declared Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, ex-minister of labor in the Laurier Government in an address to the Empire Club today. He spoke on "The Four Parties to Industry." It was a discussion of those industrial world in which, he said, the most of the social relations, failure to adjust, which, has submerged Russia, threatened Germany, and holds the rest of the world in awe. Logic, an apparently unassailable array of unanswerable points, was Mr. Mackenzie King's weapon.

While urging the principle of conference and investigation, he said: "Think of it, gentlemen, if that principle had been adhered to there would have been no war."

He declared that unrest in industry today is no transient phenomenon, it is the voice of a grief-stricken humanity crying for justice.

Profits of capital are the first consideration; profits as high as it is possible to make them. Vices, he said, are the price to the community are what they can be kept at, what the market will allow. Labor and the community are not regarded as partners, entitled to share, through common knowledge, in a common venture, and in gains and losses alike. Such control as they exercise is a control that is forced—not a control that is voluntarily shared; a control that is the nature of things, but gets an attitude of militancy on their part.

What are the extreme movements on the part of labor (Bolshevism, etc.) but a similar reaction against the monopoly of capital control? asked Mr. King, and added: "No one stands to lose quite so much through a continuance of the struggle arising out of monopoly of control by capital as capital itself. The services of capital and management are being lost sight of through delinquency of industry combined with riches and the unearned millions of profits."

Later he declared in industry, capital invests substances and dollars, labor invests skill and life. Of the two, the one involving life is the more precious. Individuals may acquire title to property by one means or another, but it is from the community and with the consent of the community that things are held. What we need quite as much as a League of Nations is a league of the parties to industry. The unions are mainly responsible for the development that has been achieved. It has been a long and bitter struggle.

Industrial autocracy and political autocracy may go hand-in-hand, but not autocracy in industry and democracy in politics.

Mr. King declared that unrest was no mere war fever, but humanity crying for justice.

UNION GOVERNMENT WILL TREAT LIQUOR QUESTION IN LIGHT OF EXPEDIENCY

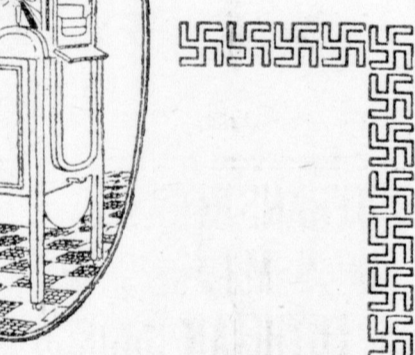

[BY H. F. GADSBY.]
The Demon Rum, the soft drink of beer and light wine is coming back for an intelligent answer. What will Parliament say to him? Will Parliament vote as it drank? These are delicate questions.

What is the attitude toward the liquor problem? Well, would say it was his—the boldest holds breath, which doesn't require much boldness or much and are now saying "anything for a quiet life." When the Government passed that bonanza order-in-council—Bolshevism was only a platform plaything and beer could be kicked in the bilge. But now something must be done to make us threat our tax. The liquor industry is now at the gutter a few short months ago is now worth picking up again.

How M.P.'s Soliloquize.
For instance, they are asking what is the moral effect on the national character of a law which engenders the lowest class of spies and turns a large number of decent citizens into lawbreakers and liars? How about "increased efficiency"? Is it better to have beerless, driven, sullen labor—or labor reasonably contented with its lot? How about "economic waste"? Is waste just waste—or is it thrift in disguise, something saved from the strain of life? Does the workman feel more cheerful when he hands Mr. Flavelle 70 cents a pound for bacon or when he pays five cents for a cool drink after a hard day's work in the foundry? Does he feel that prohibition is a blessing or simply a ruse of the employer to get more work out of him and of the food profiteer to get more money? Parliament is disposed to admit that the war is over and that circumstances are altered. The altering circumstance, see it, is the attitude of labor toward the liquor question. If labor doesn't get a little mild refreshment it may take up with something a great deal worse—anarchy for example.

Besides, there are our allies, the French. Either of Two Mountains, made a palpable hit in the House the other day when he seized on the presence of Gen. Pau to score a point for light French wines. Are we going back on our comrades in democracy now that France is over or is the Entente Cordiale—all the more cordial, for an advantageous trade arrangement—to continue?

Parliament shows a new frame of mind toward prohibition. This session, which leads to certain honest questions. Did somebody slip something over on us while the casualty lists blinded our harmless, home treatment.—Adv.

eyes with tears? Did the cold water people get by while the nation was looking the other way? Was prohibition a mood—all blue—or was it a conviction? Did we give up drink because giving up things was the fashion—horsemanship, baseball, the time money—all as nothing compared with the lives our boys gave up on the battlefield? Did we give it up because it was the easiest, safest, long-distance method of maintaining ourselves, suffering something for the war which implied personal discomfort? Why did we give it up? And when we gave it up did we mean it?

Union Government has a ticklish job ahead of it to make the right diagnosis. It's the doctor.

CATARRAH DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

TELLS SAFE AND SIMPLE WAY TO TREAT AND RELIEVE AT HOME.

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises caused by catarrh, or if phlegm drops in your throat and has caused catarrh of the stomach or bowels you will be glad to know that these distressing symptoms may be entirely overcome in many instances by the following treatment which you can easily prepare in your own home at little cost. Section from your druggist, 1 ounce of Parment (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it ½ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar, stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. An improvement is sometimes noted after the first day's treatment. Breathing should be easy, while the distressing head noises, headaches, dullness, cloudy thinking, etc., should gradually disappear under the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell, taste, defective hearing and mucus dropping in the back of the throat are other symptoms which suggest the presence of catarrh and which may often be overcome by this effective remedy. Catarrh of the ears, nearly ninety per cent of all ear troubles are caused by catarrh and there, therefore, be many people whose hearing may be restored by this simple, safe while the casualty lists blinded our harmless, home treatment.—Adv.

DAYLIGHT-SAVING MEASURE MAY DIE; STRONGLY OPPOSED

Rural Members Criticize It at Unionist Caucus.

OTTAWA, March 13.—Government supporters, subsequent to the adjournment of the Unionist caucus today, asserted the belief that a daylight savings bill will not be introduced this session. They based their statements on the amount of criticism of the measure heard in caucus. According to these members, practically no one spoke in favor of Canada again adopting the experiment of last year. Members reporting city constituencies, where daylight saving is in favor, it is understood did not seriously attempt to meet the avalanche of objections registered by the representatives of rural constituencies. In some cases they stated that if the feeling of parliament was so strongly against the introduction of the measure, the opposition would introduce the scheme on their own account.

The development of so much opposition to daylight saving creates a difficult position for the Government. It has generally been assumed that Canada would follow the example of the United States in this matter. While daylight saving was strenuously opposed across the border by the agricultural interests in Congress, they failed in their effort to have the measure killed, and when that body adjourned some days ago, the bill provided for a change in time on March 30 was still intact.

It is probable that considerable pressure will now be brought to bear on the Government by the railways, boards of trade, etc., to have Canadian

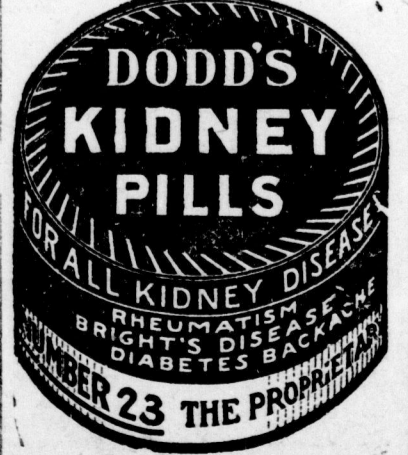

Big Eaters Get Kidney Trouble

Take Salts at first sign of Bladder irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to alter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your position as they were last year, when the daylight-saving act was in force.

The civil service commission and the civil service generally were also topics of discussion in the caucus, it is understood. There was much objection on the part of the members to procedure followed by the commission in connection with the making of appointments. There were expressions of opinion by members as to what steps the Government should take in regard to defaulters under the M. S. and some discussion as to the military situation generally.
