LABOR TEMPLE SHAREHOLDERS

Business is So Good That Secretary Gets Extra Bonus. Another successful year, just ended, has so satisfied the shareholders of the Toronto Labor Temple Company that at their annual meeting Saturday night they added $100 to their usual henorarium of $200 to Secretary James Simpson, and decided to present President D. A. Carey with a special estimonial of appreciation.

True to their promise of four years go, the provincial board of directors have managed to reduce the mortgages from $25,000 to $12,500 and have still a cash balance of $1,856.18.

The receipts from all sources, including a bank balance of $3,385.06 from last year, totalled $13,568.33. The expenditure, including $4000 principal on a son.
