

HUNDRED AND NINTH AT CHURCH SERVICE

Regiment Under Major W. S. Din-nick Parades to St. Paul's, Bloor Street.

STRUCK BY TROLLEY

Three Members Are Injured When Returning to the Armories.

Under command of Major W. S. Din-nick, the 109th Regiment paraded 500 strong on Sunday morning to attend service at St. Paul's Church, East Bloor street. The regiment left the armories at 10 o'clock and headed by brass and bugle bands marched to the church via King, Yonge, Queen, Jarvis and Bloor streets.

The regimental motto is Rex Vocat ("The King Calls") and by a coincidence this phrase was the subject of the sermon for the day. Ven. Archdeacon Cody, taking "The King Calls" for his text, preached an impressive sermon.
He spoke of the call for the last 130,000 men for active service overseas.
It was his opinion, he said, that the only feasible way to obtain volunteers for the Canadian Expeditionary Force was to recruit from the aid of the militia regiments.

He referred to the important part the regiments had taken in the past in raising battalions of overseas troops, and the heavy responsibility they had shouldered in financing these recruiting efforts. The good feeling existing between the various city regiments was praised by the preacher. There had never been a strife, he said, when there was such unani-mity between them as at present.
This was proven by the announcement that the regiments were all pulling together in the work of forming the newest Q.O.B. Overseas Battalion.

Met With Accident.
The parade of the 109th in returning to the armories after the service was marred by an accident, three of the soldiers being knocked down by a street car, one of them, Drummer Ayres, being so seriously injured that he had to be taken to the General Hospital for treatment, where it was found a rib had been broken.

The return march was via Bloor, Queen's Park and University avenue.
The accident occurred while the regiment was passing along Bloor street at Avenue road. A westbound street car, witnesses say, was going so fast the motorman couldn't stop it until he had reached the western side of the crossing. The three soldiers were knocked down while crossing Avenue road.
Two of them were able to continue the march.

NO LIBERTY ENJOYED BY FRENCH-CANADIAN

Such is Le Droit's Bitter Comment on Bilingual Decision.

LETTER OF LAW ALONE

Law Lords Gave Strictly Technical Ruling, Says
Paper.

By a Staff Reporter.
Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 5.—In its editorial columns on Saturday, Le Droit makes the following comments on the decision of the privy council re bi-lingual schools:

"It is plain that the letter only of the law has been considered by the supreme authorities in giving their decision, and the final meaning of the judgment is that the provincial legislature can when it sees fit extinguish the rights and privileges hitherto guaranteed to the French language in Ontario, just as the Norris Government did in Manitoba.

"As French-Canadians, if we could make a deduction of the judgment just rendered we see that we are entirely in the hands of the Government of Ontario, and we have no rights strictly guaranteed by the act of confederation.

"Senator Landry was right in saying that this act has not been an agreement of honor, but only a trap of infamy.

"Long before confederation the French-Canadians of Ontario taught the rights of the French language without interference in the schools built and maintained by them. The council of public instruction respected the language of the French pioneers.

Bitter Complaint.
"When a government, forgetting the history of those pioneers, tries to put its hands on these rights which have been freely enjoyed for a century and a half, we thought at least by the spirit of the Confederation Act, if not by the letter, the French-Canadians could turn their appeals to the empire, to the King of England.

"They thought that in England, where everybody is talking about the sacred duty to protect the small nationalities unjustly dealt with by the big powers, which were treating treaties as scraps of paper, and condemning them with indignation—the voice of the true French-Canadian race, asking liberty, should be heard.

"The judges took the written law, read over the different clauses of the act, and finding no definite mention of the rights of the French-Canadians as to their language in the Province of Ontario, have decided that those do not exist."

Body of Lieut-Col. Allan Has Been Brought to Halifax

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 5.—Among the passengers who arrived here from England today was J. D. Allan of Toronto, and formerly president of the board of trade of that city. He brought to Canada for burial the body of his son, Lieut-Col. W. D. Allan, D.S.O., who died of wounds in England. He was the commander of the Queen's Own Rifles and had been wounded four times. While in England Mr.
Allan received the D.S.O., which had been awarded to his heroic son for bravery on the battlefield. Lieut-Col. Allan's body will be taken to Toronto for burial.

BEARS UP UNDER SEVERE STRAIN

Despite War, International Spirit of Salvation Army Remains Unbroken.

COMMISSIONER'S MESSAGE

Chief of Staff Officers Inspiring Address to Big Massey Hall Audience.

That the international spirit of the Salvation Army will remain unbroken despite the strain to which it is being subjected by the war, and that national loyalty of its workers has been demonstrated thru the enlistment of tens of thousands, many of whom have been killed in action, formed the keynote of an interesting address by Commissioner Howard, chief of staff of the Salvation Army on "How God's 'Red Army' before a crowd of 2500 people at Massey Hall, yesterday afternoon.

It was the second meeting of the annual Salvation Army Congress of the eastern division of Canada, and included in the attendance were 250 members of that religious body, representing every part of this district.
The meeting was featured by the attendance of Premier W. H. Hearst, of Ontario, who presided and who praised the work of the organization, lauded its efforts toward doing good during war times, and paid a tribute to Commander Booth. Prolonged applause was given the mayor after a brief speech. It has been learned previously that the mayor and council had favored a grant of $500 to the Salvation Army.

Commissioner Howard showed that the Salvation Army was a going concern and a growing concern by announcing 600 additional army corps 1200 additional officers and cadets, and the establishment of 200 more social institutions in the last four years. He said statistical records would show increases in many departmental matters if they were examined.

In closing his address he appealed for remembrance of the men and women of the Salvation Army, who are heroic in their sacrifices that they might save the devils with whom they come in contact. He said they were angels of mercy, and many of them in making sacrifices paid for the blood which they saved with their own blood.

Cure of All Ill.
He said the halt, the blind and the lame all came to the Salvation Army for aid, seemingly under the belief that it possessed a sort of Aladdin's Lamp for the secret cure of all ills. He said lack of money prevented the Salvation-ists from doing all they would like to do.

The commissioner interspersed his remarks with occasional anecdotes and witticisms. He told the story of an instance in which a man was saved, a telegram was received by a certain army corps which read: "Husband coming on next train. Meet, save, and send back on ship." The order was filled and the wayward husband was sent back to his wife.

The Salvation Army has been especially affected by the war, the commissioner said, because it was international, not only in sentiment, but in fact. He said the international spirit of brotherly love was under a great strain, and 50 motor ambulances, cars, five of them representing Canada's contribution, had been given to the British army.

He lauded the late General Booth, declaring that he was not only intensely practical, but an idealist, and that his ideals were becoming realities in the progress being made in China and elsewhere. Little headway had been made in Russia, he said, because of the government.

Commissioner Richards appealed for the help of more women in the ranks of the army. Mayor Church declared that the Salvation Army in Toronto had been one of the best recruiting agencies in the city. The chief of staff preached at the morning service and the evening service, too. Massey Hall was crowded at each meeting. Besides the speeches, music was rendered by 300 musicians.

LIKES STANDARD HOTELS.
London, Ont., Nov. 5.—President-C.
W. McGuire at the annual nomination meeting of the Ontario Community Travelers' Association here pos-terday said that he looked for good results from the government's new standard hotel system and that he was well satisfied so far. All present officers were re-elected.
