CORN PRICES TAKE DROP AT CHICAGO

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Corn prices averaged lower today, largely on account of sympathy with weakness in the New York stock market. The close was unsettled at 117.1-4 for December; and 113.1-4 for May, 5-8c down to 1-4c up compared with 24 hours previous. Oats gained 1-8c to 1-4c, to 3-8c. Provisions scored a net advance of 30 to 147 points.

Altho Wall street depression formed the chief bearish element, in the corn market, weather conditions likely to promote the movement of new grain tended also to pull down values. Besides, crop estimates from a leading authority indicated that the 1917 yield per acre was 3-4 of a oushel more than had been predicted on October 1. Trade, however, was the smallest that has been seen for a long time, and when shorts tried to cover on a moderate scale in the last half of the session, a gradual recovery set in. Smallness of current receipts acted as a noticeable handicap for the bears.

able handicap for the bears.

Firmness in the oats market was ascribed chiefly to the fact that arrivals here continued meagre.

Big advances in the cost of hogs carried provisions sharply upgrade. Washington advices emphasizing the scarcity of the hog supply stimulated demand, especially for pork. Commission houses and shorts were the principal buyers. shorts were the principal buyers.

Calgary, Nov. 1.—Four hundred head of cattle were offered at the Calgary live stock yards this morning and prices were steady with yesterday's advance. Bulk of putcher cattle sold from $3 to $3.75, and plain stuff brought $7 to $3.0. There were 300 hogs on the market and prices were 60c higher on good demand, the ruling figure being $14.75 to $15.

Winnipeg, Nov. 1.—Receipts today at the Union Stock Yards numbered 3,500 cattle and 1000 hogs. The cattle market is unsettled, but prices in spots are holding steady. Quit a few cattle that have been in transit and not unloaded from 24 to 48 hours, are selling easier, on account of the hog shrinkage, but any stuff that is in good shape brings steady prices. Hogs receipts are liberal with an advance in price for selects to $15.
