Charles Frohman will present at the Princess Theatre next week Sir Charles Wyndham, Miss Mary Moore and their London company, in a repertoire, arranged as follows: Monday, "David Garrick"; Tuesday, "Mrs. Gorringe's Necklace"; Wednesday, "The Case of Rebellious Susan." The repertoire would of course be incomplete without that exquisite comedy of Tom Robertson's, "David Garrick," which will always have the place of honor in Sir Charles Wyndham's repertoire. He has played it for twenty years in various parts of the world and in four different languages. His name and that of Miss Mary Moore are inseparably connected. How charming, how interesting and how lovable the two distinguished players make the principal roles it is unnecessary to tell. "David Garrick," however, affords them no better opportunities than the two newer plays in which they will be seen, and which both had their first productions on any stage at Sir Charles Wyndham's London Theatre. "Mrs. Gorringe's Necklace," more than either of the others, gives Sir Charles an opportunity for versatility, and enables Miss Moore to present a most mirth-provoking impersonation of a highly eccentric woman. Indeed, the New York critics were emphatic in declaring that it is quite her finest characterization. It is by Hubert Henry Davies, had a long run in London, and has duplicated in America its trans-Atlantic success.

A genuine picture of the life of a southern darky will be given at Shea's next week, when "Sunny South" will head one of the best bills of the season. Ten genuine southern darkies, in song and dance peculiar to their section of the States, will entertain the audience for twenty or more minutes. The stage setting represents a southern plantation, with the old-style colonial mansion in the foreground and the great fields in the distance. Another feature will be the celebrated Kauffman Troupe, in their wonderful bicycle act. There will be several other acts which have no visited Toronto before, particularly that of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Barry, in a roaring comedy sketch, "A Skin Game." Bedini and Arthur will offer a comedy juggling act. Greene & Werner will appear in "Babes in the Jungle." Harry Howard's ponies will be pleasing alike to young and old. Dixson and Anges will appear in a new talking act. There will be one or two other acts, and the kinetograph.

Three years have elapsed since Cecilia Loftus, then at the head of her profession as a vaudeville artist, entered the legitimate field. After an arduous apprenticeship, in which she has served as leading lady with Modjeska, E. H. Sothern and Sir Henry Irving, not to mention the time when she was a prima donna in comic opera, Miss Loftus has been graduated to the rank of a star, making her debut in New York at the beginning of the present season. Her play is "The Serio-Comic Governess," a comedy by Israel Zangwill, and it affords Miss Loftus every opportunity for displaying her talents. She comes to the Princess, beginning Thursday night next.

"The Maid and the Mummy," of which Richard Carle and Robert Hood Bowers are the author and composer, together with the original cast and production, will be brought to the Princess week after next.

Thomas E. Shea, a popular American actor, who has been taken into the ranks of stars under the management of Nixon & Zimmerman, will appear before Toronto theatregoers for the first time at the Grand Opera House on Monday evening, and during the week will present several of the standard plays in which he has scored a success. The bill for the engagement is as follows: Monday and Tuesday evenings, "The Bells"; Tuesday and Saturday evenings, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde"; Wednesday evening, "Cardinal Richelieu"; Thursday evening, "Othello"; Wednesday and Saturday matinees, "Banished by the King." The management have surrounded Mr. Shea with a strong acting company, and have given a scenic environment to the various plays of his repertoire, which will vie with any dramatic productions en tour, and be in direct keeping with the surroundings they have given Viola Allen and the other attractions under their management. In the character of the "Cardinal," Bulwer Lytton's great play of "Richelieu," Mr. Shea has great scope to show his versatility, of which he ably takes advantage, and scores heavily. It is one of his strongest portrayals, and will rank with his clever work done in "The Bells" or "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

"A Race for Life," by Theodore Kremer, will be presented at the Majestic Theatre next week, opening with a matinee on Monday. The scene is laid in the picturesque mountain region bordered by the California Sierra Nevada Mountains, giving ample opportunity for the striking and romantic introduction of broad landscape effects, of which accurate artistic advantage has been taken to provide a realistic setting for a powerful, and, in some respects, peculiar play. The place, plot and people involved are said to afford unusual advantage for the striking and strongly contrasted display of Mr. Kremer's remarkable constructive talent, and the results obtained add to his popularity with those who clamor for rapid-fire action and volcanic bursts of it.

The Mendelssohn Choir announce in another column the opening of the plan for subscribers on Monday morning at 9 o'clock at Massey Hall. Subscribers are asked to read their notices carefully, so that there will be no mistake in the hour their numbers will be called. The plan will be open to the general public on and after Saturday next, commencing at 9 a.m. The importance of these concerts, not only from a musical, but also on the lines of the artistic development of the country, is appreciated to such an extent that a large proportion of the subscriptions come from cities and towns, not only in Ontario, but from Montreal, and from several points in the Eastern States. Musicians thruout the country are beginning to regard the Mendelssohn Choir series of concerts as an annual event that provides the opportunity, seldom afforded, of hearing works of the highest educational value performed b ya complete symphony orchestra and a chorus capable of giving the greatest artistic finish and an adequate interpretation of these masterpieces of musical art. Mr. Vogt has already in view for next season the production of Beethoven's great work, the "Ninth, or Choral Symphony," which has never before been presented in Toronto.

The scholars who have been selected to sing in the chorus of the "Festival of the Lilies" are reminded that the first rehearsals this year will be held in the lecture-room of the Metropolitan Church on Saturday, Feb. 11, at 1:30 p.m., and in Wesley Church, Dundas-street, at 3.45 p.m.

Phil Sheridan's new "City Sports Burlesque Company" will open a week at the Star Theatre, commencing Monday. The performance begins with a musical burlesque entitled "Maids of Siam," in two acts, headed by Crissie Sheridan, and is made more enjoyable by the comedy work of Phil Hills and Barrett Bros., the Pan-American Four, Mat Schaefer, Ali and Ali, who take the part of American sailors and make no end of fun. The singing is handled by Miss Ruth Beeche, Miss Adelaide Mars-

The olio has the following: Ali, Hunter and Ali, comedy acrobats; Mills and Beecher, travesty artists; the Barrett Bros., the real Irishmen; the Pan-American Four, who can sing; Adelaide Marsden, Zorano; and the Schaefer trio, masters of music.

As a rule, Toronto is superior to Montreal in the numbers of an audience, but Ysaye, on Tuesday evening last, in Montreal, had receipts, the biggest of any violin recital ever given in Canada, and surpassed his receipts at Massey Hall by 65 per cent. It will be interesting news to all to know that Toronto will hear Ysaye again before his return to Europe, in Massey Hall on March 16.

The greatest success of the musical season, so far, from a financial viewpoint, has been the remarkable audiences which have greeted Eugen D'Albert, the great pianist, everywhere since his arrival. At his first recital in New York the sale of tickets was stopped by the police because the whole of Carnegie Hall had been sold out, with hundreds of seats on the stage and hundreds standing up. In Brooklyn, Philidelphia, Baltimore and Washington, there were packed houses at every concert. His appearance in Massey Hall on Tuesday evening, Feb. 21, with Madame Fink-D'Albert, will be one of the events of the season. The subscribers' list is now open at Massey Hall.

Victor Herbert's orchestra, which has before given pleasure to Toronto audiences, will be heard in this city again at the forthcoming concert of the National Chorus, to be given in Massey Hall on the 28th inst. The orchestra has just concluded a series of weekly concerts at the Majestic Theatre in New York, where it met with great success, and is now on a tour thru the United States. The executive of the National Chorus have decided to close the list to subscribers on the 14th inst. The full program, as selected by Dr. Albert Ham, conductor of the National Chorus, is as follows:

Vocal (unaccompanied), "A Spring Song" and "There is Music by the River," by Pinsuti.

Vocal (with orchestra accompaniment), cantata, "John Gilpin" (Cowen); march and chorus from "Tannhauser" (Wagner); cantata, "The Hope of the Ages" (Dr. Albert Ham); "Now, Tramp O'er Moss and Fell" (Sir Henry Bishop).

Orchestral, Overture to "Oberon" (Weber), Allegretto and Scherzo from "Seventh Symphony" (Beethoven), Suite, four movements (Delibes); Irish Rhapsody (Victor Herbert).

Violoncello soli, Serenade (Tierne); Scherzo (Van Goens). Soloist, Mr. Victor Herbert.

"The Hope of the Ages" has been included in the program by special request.

Rutherford, violinist, and Glionna's Orchestra will furnish the musical part of the program. Street Railway cars will be in waiting on return of the special train. Railway tickets and tickets of admission may be obtained from R. C. Hamilton (Love & Hamilton), 45 Scott-street, or R. J. Score, 77 West King-street.

Beautiful Scenery at Niagara Falls.

One of the wonders of the world is the ice bridge at Niagara Falls, and a sight you will not soon forget. Grand Trunk Fast Express trains leave for the Falls at 9.00 and 11.00 a.m., 4.10 and 6.00 p.m. Secure tickets at City Office, northwest corner King and Yonge-streets.

TRADES SECTIONS FACE DEFICIT.

Quarterly Increase From 3 to 5c Per Capita is Recommended.

At last night's meeting of the trades and labor council, it was brought out, in discussion of its financial status, that the expense of maintaining the sectional trade bodies during the year had exceeded the revenue derived from the levying of the tax of one cent per capita, per month. Heretofore, these sections have been self sustaining. It was recommended that the tax per capita be increased from three cents to five cents, per quarter.

The union label committee recommended that all members of local unions purchase only such clothing for themselves as bore the union label, and suggested the submitting of a referendum to the unions on the subject.

A deputation was chosen to wait upon the city council and protest against the proposed abolition of the cumulative system of voting.

UNIFORM NEWSPAPER POSTAGE.

That is What Canadian Press Association Will Try and Secure.

The Canadian Press Association concluded its business yesterday morning by passing several resolutions on matters of benefit to the newspaper business. The question of postage was well discussed. A new regulation issued by the postal department requires publishers to weigh their papers before mailing, make up the bundles for route distribution and prepay the amount due on the week's issue. This brought complaints from several members, and a resolution that there should be a uniform rate on newspapers. A sub-committee will be appointed to follow this up.

Another resolution urges printers to observe the conditions required by insurance companies to secure better rates. So long as printing offices neglected the rules of cleanliness, order and sanitation, there would be no relief. The declaration in favor of government ownership of telegraphs and telephones was reaffirmed.

It was resolved to take steps to have other associations affiliate to form a Dominion Press Council, and to getting Dominion incorporation for the present association.

J. T. Clark was elected second vice-president, and the following executive was chosen: G. S. Channel, Sherbrooke Record; F. H. Dobbin, Peterboro Review; John F. Mackay, Globe; W. E. Smallfield, Renfrew Mercury; D. Williams, Collingwood Bulletin.

John A. Cooper was presented with an address by P. D. Ross on behalf of the members. The next summer's tour will probably be to Quebec and Newfoundland.

ANNESLEY HALL.

The University Women's Club held a reception in Annesley Hall Thursday night. The attendance was gratifying, there being about one hundred members and friends present.

Dr. Helen McMurchy occupied the chair. Among those present were: Chancellor Burwash and Mrs. Burwash, Provost Macklem, Prof. Coleman, and Miss Coleman, Prof. Frazer and Miss Frazer, Prof. B. H. Young and Miss Young.

Miss Berkley of McGill gave an interesting address on the subject of university residents ofr women, Miss Addison, dean of Annesley Hall and Miss Carter, dean of St. Hilda's leading the discussion that followed.

A YEAR FOR BIGAMIST.

Harry Haines will spend a year in the Central for bigamy. It was claimed in court yesterday by his counsel, Mr. Robinette, that "the second woman ran after him and almost forced him to marry her."

Lavina Purcell, aged 17, unhappily married and convicted of theft of a fur coat, was given six months in the Mercer.

Jerry Shea and George Marsh, two youths, must stand trial for alleged assault on Mrs. Maria Prout, aged 65.

NEW AGENT FOR GALT.

It is expected in railway circles that W. McIlroy, C.P.R. ticket agent at Galt, will succeed T. F. Boddy, agent at Peterboro, who will retire at the end of the month. W. J. Malcolm, for nine years assistant to Mr. McIlroy at Galt, would probably succeed the latter in the event of his transfer.

MANY HAPPY RETURNS.

To J. B. Jones, born Feb. 5, 1826, one of Toronto's oldest pioneers. His many friends will be pleased to know he is out again, after being confined to the house over two weeks with the grip.

Anniversary Services.

Parkdale Presbyterian Church, Dunn-avenue, will hold its 26th anniversary services to-morrow. Rev. Dr. Ross, St. Andrew's Church, London, will be the preacher for the day, morning and evening. A mass meeting of Sunday school and congregation will be held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and will be addressed by Dr. Ross and Rev. A. B. Winchester. The congregation will meet socially on Wednesday evening, Feb. 8. Supper will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock, after which an excellent program of speech and song will be rendered in the church. Old members and friends are most cordially invited.

Dr. Chase's Calender Almanac.

Messrs. Edmanson & Bates have just finished mailing a copy of Dr. Chase's Almanac Calendar to all the names on the voting list throughout Canada. This is really one of the most valuable almanacs issued, as the accuracy of its weather forecast for the month of January proved. The correct forecasting of the weather is of special value to farmers, as is also the diary calendar, which is to be found in no other calendar published. It furnishes a complete record of all important dates and events. If anyone has not received a copy of this valuable almanac, all they have to do is to write Edmanson & Bates, Toronto, mention the name of The Toronto World, and a copy will be sent to them free. Remember that the almanac contains a complete forecasting of the weather for 1905, and also a complete diary for every day in the year.

VARICOCELE CURED

NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT.

Confined to His Home for Weeks

"Heavy work, severe training and evil habits in youth brought on a double varicocele. When I worked hard the aching would become severe and I was often laid up for a week at a time. My family physician told me an operation was my only hope—but I dreaded it. I tried several specialists, but soon found out all they wanted was my money. I commenced to look upon all doctors as little better than rogues. One day my boss asked me why I was off work so much and I told him my condition. He advised me to consult Drs. Kennedy and Kergan, as he had taken treatment from them himself and knew they were square and skilful. He wrote them and got the New Method Treatment for me. My progress was somewhat slow and during the first month's treatment I was somewhat discouraged. However, I continued treatment for three months longer and was rewarded with a complete cure. I could only earn $12 a week in a machine shop before treatment, now I am earning $21 and never lose a day. I wish all sufferers knew of your valuable treatment.
