srises out of the fact that Rev. Dr. J. S. Cook of Gerrard Street Church, who was delegated by the recent conference to the King street pulpit, has not been welcomed with open arms by the pewholders. He was appointed to succeed Rev. G. S. Faircloth, a young man who had handled the territory in excellent style during the last few years.

The church is situated in the heart The church is situated in the heart of a foreign population, and for many years it has had a struggle to live, altho aided by members of the more wealthy Sherbourne Street Church. Mr. Faircloth had his own residence at Kenilworth avenue, and was "house free." It was with chagrin that the church officials learned that he would go to Sault Ste. Marie to succeed Rev. Dr. E. N. Two solutions are suggested. One Two solutions are suggested. One is that Dr. Cook should exchange his charge for that of Rev. A. G. Hudson of Crawford street Methodist. Another is that he should exchange with Rev. P. M. Peacock, formerly of Beech Avenue Church, assigned by the recent conference to Lambton Mills.

Mr. Peacock will occupy the King street pulpit this evening, and it is generally expected that he will be chosen to fill the vacancy. His strong point is work among young men, and his progressive attitude will suit him for a struggling church such as the one in question.

The pretty little church on Beech avenue is already crowded to its full extent, and on Wednesday last the annual Sunday School picnic took place, when five cars of enthusiastic scholars and adults spent the day at Scarboro Heights.
