DYKEMAN'S

A Great

Collar Bargain

We have received a lot of about 30 dozen Collars of many different designs, and worth from 35 cents up to 75 cents each. These were bought at a great reduction and we are offering them to you at the same reduction.

They all go on sale at the small price of 15c. each

Now that the separate collar is so much in vogue to wear with fancy dresses, Cotton dresses, muslin dresses and separate waists, and now that the holiday season is at hand, and you need so many nice new stylish collars to renew your old supply, this sale comes at a most opportune time.

Most of these Collars are the washable kind, and therefore very durable and all are very tastefully trimmed.

Our window display will give you a slight idea of the wonderful values they are.

Remember all only 15c. each

GOOD DENTISTRY!

Emerson puts the point pitifully. "If a man can write a better book, preach a better sermon or make a better mouse trap than his neighbour, though he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten track to his door."

Our fillings, Crown and Bridge work are the best. It will pay you to have your teeth put in good order, painlessly and at reasonable charges. Our good work makes good friends, who remain with us.

POWER BOAT RACES AT MILLIDGEVILLE

The First Races of the Season Will Be Held on Saturday Afternoon

There will be two races at Millidgeville on Saturday, according to the schedule arranged by the R. K. Y. C. They will both be for power boats, the first being for open boats of Class "C," three horse power and under, with minimum beam of four feet, and the second for motor cruisers, meaning fitted with stationary shaft and under an extended canopy.

The first race will start at 3:30 p. m. and the second at 4 p. m. The judges for the first race are Messrs. J. R. Atkinson, J. R. Cudlip, and G. Wilrich, and for the second S. P. Gerow, R. D. Patterson and A. G. Rannit.

The contest, to be sailed will begin off the clubhouse wharf, thence to Sand Point, leaving buoy to port there, thence to Indian Island, leaving the latter to port and finishing after twice round course off the club house wharf.

The owners of boats who wish to have their names entered for an extended cruise, to submit their names to the secretary of the motor boat committee, Chester Atkinson, later than 6 p. m. today, Thursday. Racing numbers will be given by the secretary. The races are open to all clubs of recognized good standing.

It is expected that the races will be interesting, and will attract a goodly number of spectators, as they are the first of the season.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE BEULAH CAMP

Meetings Will Open on July 2nd and Continue to July 12th.

The Beulah Camp meetings for 1909 open at the Beulah Camp grounds on July 2nd, and continue to the 12th.

The grounds have been put in fine condition, and the charming little village will even be prettier than ever. By the opening date the garden surrounding the place of worship will be fully clothed in summer ornament.

The meetings this year are attracting more than ordinary interest, and promise to be more largely attended than ever before. Great preparation has been made for the success of the meetings and both preaching and singing will be of especial interest. The chief speaker this year will be Rev. C. W. Reuth, of Indiana, a well known evangelist, and an excellent teacher and preacher. The singing will be in charge of Rev. Arthur F. Ingler, of Lowell, Mass a splendid singer. Those in charge have been particularly fortunate in securing these two clergymen. Board per week is $3.00, or 60 cents a day. Rooms are 40 and 50 cents a day, according to location. Reduced rates or free returns will be given on steamboats and railways for asking for certificate when purchasing ticket.

The meeting will be held at the Beulah Camp grounds, near the wharf, north end, and did considerable damage, burning all the woodwork around the top of the boat and the house.

The fire was discovered by the captain of the tugboat "Hunter." There was no one aboard the boat when the blaze started, so its origin is hard to trace, and the owner of the tug, Mr. Holly, said this morning that there was no fire in her last night to his knowledge, and as far as he could ascertain from the engineer.

The Martello was purchased this spring by James Holly & Sons, Indiantown, and fitted for tugboat work, etc.

Mr. Holly said today that his insurance was very small and would only partially cover the loss.
