PLUNGE TO DEATH IN AN AUTO

Several Lives Lost—Woman's Despairing Scream as Waters Close Over Her—Dashed Over Bridge

Chicago, Nov. 8.—A huge touring car plunged into the river at Jackson Boulevard from the east approach of the bridge a little after 10 o'clock last night while the bridge was closed. A man and a woman were seen to come to the surface and float down the stream, the man endeavoring to save the woman by carrying her on his back. After drifting more than a block, both sank with last despairing cries for help.

Woman's Screams The screams most clearly distinguishable as the big car went over, declared by the witnesses to have been those of women, and the conviction was reached by them that more than two of the occupants of the automobile were women.

ROBS SAFE, OVERLOOKS $60,000

Masked Thief Loots Home as Decrepit Old Man Looks On—Secures $2,765 Booty and Gets Away

New York, Nov. 8.—A robbery of such a daring character that, if no credible witness did not verify the facts in the case, the police would regard it as a work of the imagination, occurred at Florence, N. J., seven miles from Mt. Holly. The thief was committed by a single man, masked and evidently bent upon murder if he were thwarted.

She locked herself in. The thief then went again to the sitting room and in the presence of old Schuyler, started drilling the door of a safe. Then he went to the yard and got an axe. Before he burst the safe door he went upstairs again and made Miss Nixon open her door. He drew a knife and forced her to give him her key. Then he called the window up so she could not get out that way and locked the door from the outside.
