Gunner Otty J. Morgan of this city, who went away with the Ammunition Column on June 18, 1916, while on leave in England recently met his brother, Corp. Geo. H. Morgan, now attached to the 104th Canadian Infantry, who went over with the 104th. They had not met for two years and three months. Needless to say it was a very happy meeting.

SIX LIVE IN ONE ROOM
Rev. Geo. Scott, agent of the Children's Aid Society, visited a home last evening where a colored woman and five children are living in one room. There is only one bed in the room, and no stove. When there is food to cook it is cooked on a stove in the lady's quarters. The woman's health is not good. Her husband is in Portland, Me., and makes no attempt to support the family, which has already been in the Municipal Home here for a time, and apparently will have to go there again. Scott anticipates a busy winter for the Children's Aid and the benevolent societies.

WATER ON IN NEW LANCASTER MAIN

Test of Important Undertaking Yesterday Proved Successful—Connections Completed

The water was turned into the new twenty-four inch water main just finished, which runs from Barnhill's corner, Fairville, near the Manchester residence on the Manawagong river, yesterday. Tests made of the hydrants all along the way proved very satisfactory. The one at the summer house, however, perhaps the highest spot in the section to be served, throwing a stream of water almost across the street, although only turned at half cock.

SUDDEN DEATH OF JOHN S. CURRIE

General regret was expressed today when it was learned that John S. Currie, the well-known broker of this city, had passed away very suddenly at the General Public Hospital at an early hour this morning. Mr. Currie was seemingly in the very best of health on Friday morning, but late in the afternoon he was forced to leave his office and return to his home as he was not feeling well. Saturday morning a physician was called to his home, and on his orders he was taken to the hospital last night. His condition was such, when he arrived in the hospital, that the doctors, after a consultation, decided that an operation would prove fatal and tried other means to save his life, all of which proved fruitless.

Mr. Currie was a life-long resident of St. John and for several years was connected with his brother, J. R. Currie in what was then known as the Currie Business University. On the breaking up of the company he went into the brokerage business, which he had conducted very successfully for the last few years. He was a member of the Masonic order and always took an active part in the affairs of the fraternity. He was a member of St. David's Presbyterian church.

Mr. Currie was fifty-three years old and leaves, besides his wife, one son, Weldon, of the staff of the Royal Bank of Canada in Santo Domingo; two daughters, Jean and Evelyn, both at home; two brothers, J. R. Currie of this city and Thomas of Boston.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from his late residence, 28 Charles street.

EXCHEQUER COURT IN SESSION HERE

Six Cases on the Docket — Price For Grain Elevator Site The Issue in Several

A sitting of the exchequer court of Canada was opened here this morning with His Lordship Mr. Justice Casals presiding. Six cases were entered on the docket for trial in this city. The cases of the King vs. Vassie & Company, Limited, Prudential Trust Company Limited, Joseph Allison and the Petrie Manufacturing Company, arose out of the expropriation of lands for the building of the new elevator on Prince William and Water streets. The government made a tender of $150 a square foot to all parties whose lands were expropriated, several of whom accepted including the City of Saint John. It was decided that the evidence should apply to the whole four cases, and the trial was at once commenced. D. Mullin, K. C., appeared for the King, and Barnhill, Ewing and Sanford with F. R. Taylor, K. C., as counsel for the defendants.

The case of the King vs. Thomas Nagle will also be tried here, as well as the New Brunswick Coal & Railway Company vs. the King. In the latter case damages are claimed for fire on the supplants' property along the line of the International Railway. F. R. Taylor, K. C., appeared for the supplant and D. Mullin, K. C., for the King. In the case of the King vs. Nagle, R. D. Hanson, K. C., appeared for the King and H. O. McInerney for the defendant.

ALONG THE RIVER

Squalls and a Rainbow, and Then a Cloudless Day—Frost and the Gardens—"Pigs Is Money"

The Stars and Stripes, floating in the breeze from a flagpole beside a cottage on the hillside overlooking Crystal Beach on Saturday afternoon was explained when American Consul Currier went ashore from the Oceanic at that point. Mr. Currier is charmed with the beauty of the river, and has been spending his week-ends there for some time.

Saturday afternoon was decidedly squally. Hardly had the Oceanic put out to sea when a dash of rain fell, the wind, freshened with showers at intervals, and on Grand Bay black squalls beat a heavy sea. The yacht Dream and one motor boat were the only craft seen in the bay. The water continued rough until well into the evening, but straight ahead between Brown's Flats and Caton's Island the base of a great rainbow rested on the water, and the squalls were to follow. After the squalls the weather turned very cold, and there was quite a frost before morning.

But the summer folk are sorry to leave the river. Twenty-five got off the Oceanic at Sand Point, a dozen or more at Day's Landing, nearly twenty at Belley's Point, and other groups at Carter's Point and Public Landing, with many more going farther up. They had a delightful Sunday, for it was a day without a cloud, though not as warm as on the preceding Sunday. The week had marked the change from summer to autumn, for here and there on the hillsides were touches of scarlet and gold.

Yet it is remarkable how great the woods remain, and how like that of summer the foliage remains. But the farmers are talking of gathering their pumpkins, and only some of the root crops will have any further growth. The wild blackberries are not all ripe yet, and the hawthorn and rowan berries need a touch of frost to give them their full brilliancy of color.

SERGEANT G. A. CORBET IS KILLED IN ACTION

According to advice received by Mrs. Frederick Wolfe, 149 Moore street, Sergeant G. A. Corbet, of Elgin, Scotland, and an original member of the 26th Battalion, was killed in action on August 15. Sergeant Corbet had been over two years at the front in which time he had suffered no injury. He was a stretcher bearer in the regiment, a post of greatest danger, and is spoken very highly of by his former comrades now in the city. He came to Canada about four years ago from his home in Scotland and was employed up to the date of his enlistment as a baker with D. Mackie & Sons.

OAK HALL - SCOVIL BROS., Limited ST. JOHN, N. B.

Dear Mary—
 Isn't it funny that some men will give their wives all the pretty clothes they want, but when it comes to things to furnish the home they "tighten right up?"

No, it isn't strange either. Such men are vain, selfish and thoughtless. Why I've often seen a man spend as much on one theatre party—tickets, autos and supper—as it would cost to nicely furnish a whole room. And his wife needed the furniture too. Theatre parties are O. K. but I think furniture comes first.

As ever—HELEN
 P. S. I hope men will become better and let their wives have all they need of the good Furniture they keep at
