Reads Paper On Missionary Work of Presbyterian Church

The central group of the Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. J. S. Malcolm, 187 Duke street, on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Ethel Shaw, president, was in the chair and led in the devotional program. Two members were enrolled. It was decided to read the "Burning Bush" by Dr. McBeth, during the season. Miss Shaw read a paper she had prepared for the Presbyterian in Woodstock during the summer, entitled "The Presbyterian church, a Missionary church." She said that as early as 360 A. D. a monastery was established in Gallway, Scotland, and a church built, dedicated to St. Martin. Miss Shaw then traced the life of the Presbyterian church, tracing out strongly the lives of such eminent Presbyterian missionaries as Dr. Goforth and Dr. Wike, who at the last great call of 1925 with their wives went back to continue their life work in China and India. Miss Shaw was given hearty thanks for her excellent paper. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. R. Gault, Mrs. Porteous and Mrs. D. Haines.

CARD PARTY.

The popularity of the card parties of St. John the Baptist Ladies' Society defied the storm of last night. There were patrons for 70 tables and the evening was spent most enjoyably. The fortunate pair winners were as follows: Ladies, first, Miss Margaret Fleming; second, Miss Regina Whitley; third, Mrs. Arthur Goddard; gentlemen, first, Walter Marley; second, Frank Morris; third, A. W. Hopper.

Mission Work Told Of At St. David's

The monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of St. David's yesterday afternoon was held at the church, with the president, Mrs. H. Sommerville, in the chair. There was a good attendance of members. It was a good mission day the program mainly dealt with home missions. Mrs. A. A. Johnson gave an interesting talk on the work of the deaconess in this city. Miss Jennie B. Robb, the society's missionary to Korea, who is home on furlough, addressed the meeting on her work among the Koreans. Diced carrots and peas are nice served together in a cream sauce.

Mrs. Duval Tells of Mission Work in Nigeria

Mrs. Louis Duval, missionary on furlough from Nigeria, gave a very inspiring address to the W. M. S. of the Carleton United church Tuesday evening when she spoke before a special meeting in connection with the observance of the 85th anniversary of the church. Mrs. Duval described the mode of travel and the climate in Nigeria. There are now 1,000 miles of railway in that country and in the 24 years since she had first gone to that land the number of church members among the natives in the country had grown from 500 to 16,000. She interestingly told of her work among the women. She attributed much of the interest taken by her husband, Rev. W. A. Henderson, Mrs. J. E. Augustine, Mrs. Chester Alden, Mrs. Frederick Barbour, Mrs. George Oland, Mrs. F. Macdure Scandens, Mrs. George Roy, Mrs. Frederick McDonald, Mrs. Fraser Gregory, Mrs. Percy McAvity, Mrs. D. W. Ledingham, Mrs. Harry Haines, Mrs. James Currie, Mrs. Douglas White, Mrs. Cecil West, Miss Edith White, the Misses Lynch, Mrs. A. C. Currie, Mrs. J. F. City Teachers To Give Addresses On Beaverbrook Tour

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Association of the Natural History Society will be held on Nov. 11 at 2:30, it was decided at a meeting of the executive yesterday afternoon at which Mrs. Margaret Lawrence, president, was in the chair. The executive decided to open this season of the Kate M. Nathan memorial lecture course on Nov. 18, when three of the city teachers who were privileged to enjoy the tour of the British Isles as the guests of the Beaverbrook this summer will tell of their trip. The three teachers are Miss Gertrude Wilson, Mrs. W. W. Sutherland, of Moncton, at her home on Monday evening. The fortunate pair winners were Mrs. Murray Campbell, Mrs. J. Woodland, Mrs. Earle White, Mrs. Martin Campbell, Mrs. E. Campbell, Mrs. William Cornfield, Miss Mabel Campbell, Miss Stella O'Dell and Miss Zella Woodland.

CHAPTER MEETS.

The Duke of Rothsay Chapter of the I. O. O. F., held its November meeting last night at the residence of Miss Gilbert, 19 Paddock street, with a large attendance of members. Mrs. Walter C. Allison, the regent, presided. Plans were made for the activities of the coming month which will include the giving of an entertainment for the soldier patients in the Lancaster hospital. A wooden chest thoroughly cleaned once a year with cedar oil will serve as a cedar chest. If preserving pans are greased with butter when making marmalade it will not burn.

Players At 105 Tables At Bridge and Forty-fives of North End Division C. W. L.

The North End Sub Division of the Catholic Women's League held a very successful and delightfully arranged card party last evening in St. Peter's rooms, Douglas avenue. Cards were played at 105 tables. There were 60 tables of forty-fives and the winners were: Ladies, first, Miss N. Harrington, silver candlesticks and candles; second, Mrs. James Harley, cake plate; third, Mrs. Fred Conlogue, breakfast set; gentlemen, first, Percy Howard, fountain pen and pencil; second, George Reid, scarf; third, Myrell Bonner, pack of cards.

At bridge play there were 46 tables occupied. The prize winners were:

Social Notes

Prior to his departure for Tucson, Arizona, Mr. M. O. Fowler was the guest of honor at a very delightful dinner given by Mr. Frank Starr at the Cliff Club on Monday evening. A most delightful Halloween masquerade party took place at the home of Miss Margaret Keen, 200 Rockland road, on Monday evening of this week. The house was artistically decorated for the occasion, each room having its own particular design. The prizes for the best costumes were won by Miss Doris Bromfield as a Sunflower, and Mr. Al Day as a Clown. Other prizes for costumes were won by Miss May Brooks, Miss Lillian Bromfield and Mr. Percy Galle. Games and dancing were enjoyed after which a dainty supper was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Jane Keen. Sutherland, Mrs. R. B. Dean, Mrs. W. Sherwood, Mrs. C. Culver, Rev. E. R. and Mrs. MacWilliam, Mrs. G. Chase, Mrs. Chase Patterson, Mrs. G. DeWitt and Miss Edie DeWitt. The evening was pleasantly spent and the refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. B. McLean and Miss Ida Montell.

Mrs. and Mrs. Merrill C. Hillman, who have been recently married, tendered a delightful reception at the home of the bridegroom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Colpland, 129 St. John street, Woodstock, N. B. A large number of friends were present and the house was prettily decorated with Halloween colors and novelties. The evening was spent at the close of which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Miss Grace Williams, of Grey's Mills, Kings Co., N. B., and Mr. Hillman is an employee of the United Farmers' Co-operation Co., the staff of which firm gave the young couple a set of china and the stockholders of Chipman gave them a handsome silver service. Mr. and Mrs. Hillman have the good wishes of many friends in their new home.

Mrs. J. N. Drost, of Bath, N. B., was guest of honor at a delightful birthday party on the occasion of her 63rd birthday. Mrs. Drost was the recipient of a large number of lovely gifts, for which she expressed her thanks in a few suitable words. At the tea hour a beautifully decorated birthday cake, bearing 63 lighted candles, was the centre of attraction. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pryor and daughter, Mary, of Centerville; Mr. and Mrs. Archibald, as well as Miss Marcella and Master Porter Archibald, of Monticello, Me.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Drost, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drost, Mrs. Joseph Davenport and family, of Bath; Miss Josephine Drost, Miss Marie Drost and Mr. Edward Drost.

Mrs. MacKay, wife of Rev. Alexander MacKay, B. A., was at home in the manse to the ladies of Chipman and congregation on Tuesday, Oct. 26. Mrs. MacKay was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Percy Flewelling. Miss Beattie Forsythe attended the door. Mrs. Dr. Armstrong presided over the tea and Miss Geraldine Armstrong ushered the guests to the tea room, where delicious refreshments were served. The nicely appointed tables were decorated with pumpkins and late autumn flowers. Miss Esther Baird and Mrs. A. M. Scribner served with Mrs. G. B. Ridd and Mrs. Stanley Chase replenishing. Rev. Mr. MacKay was inducted into the pastorate of Chipman United church on Oct. 8 and since then he and his wife have been making many friends in the congregation and vicinity.

A very delightful dinner was served at the home of Harry Saunders, St. Stephen, Halloween eve in honor of his nephew, Gordon Saunders, and Miss Eva Ella Ritchie, both of Upper Kent, who were married Saturday morning. The dining room and table were tastefully decorated with Halloween colors, a miniature bride and groom adorning the centre of the table. Mrs. Olive Goffey and Mrs. Sarah Crosby, of Calais, Me., served the guests. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Saunders and daughter, Marion, Stewart Coffey and Mrs. R. C. Davis, of Medford, Mass.

A number of young people gathered at the home of Mrs. Charles Forrester, Hampton, and tendered a surprise party to Miss Madeline McPherson, who is leaving this week for Kentville, where she will reside. During the evening Miss Nina Burns, on behalf of those present, presented Miss McPherson with an umbrella as a token of their esteem.

Mrs. Jessie Harding, of Newcastle, is the guest of Mrs. F. J. Harding. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Powell, of Moncton, are spending a few days in the city visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mantle have returned from their honeymoon trip through Maine and New Brunswick and have taken up their residence at 74 Wall street.

Miss Mary McQuaid, of Charlottetown, is spending a week or so in the city, the guest of friends.

Shower For High Tea Is Held By Children of Mary

The Children of Mary of the Cathedral parish held a most enjoyable social evening last night at the St. Vincent De Paul rooms in Waterloo street when they had a shower for the fancy work booth at the Cathedral High Tea which opens in the Y. M. C. I. next week. A great variety of lovely pieces were brought in. Cards were played and suitable prizes were presented to the winners. Vocal and instrumental music was also enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served. The hall was very prettily decorated in Halloween trimmings. Miss Josephine McNamara, the president, was the convener of the very delightful affair and she was ably assisted by the members of the executive.

Women Find

Great comfort in this new hygienic pad that discards easily as tissue—no laundry

ON many important counts, women are deserting the old-time "sanitary pad."

There is a new way. A way that multiplies protection. A way, too, that solves the old problem and embarrassment of disposal. It is called "KOTEX." Ends the insecurity of the old-time sanitary pad. Five times as absorbent! And deodorizes—ends ALL fear of offending.

As easily disposed of as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment. You get it at any drug or department store simply by saying "KOTEX." You ask for it without hesitating.

Costs only a few cents. Eight in 10 better-class women employ it. Proves old ways an unnecessary risk.

Weddings

Mantle-Alexander.

The wedding of Miss Mary A. Alexander, daughter of Mrs. Bridget and the late James E. T. Alexander, and Thomas E. Mantle took place at 6:30 o'clock on Monday morning in Trinity church with Rev. C. Gordon Lawrence officiating. The bride, who was unattended, was becomingly attired in a gown of Canton crepe and carried a bouquet of Opheelia roses. During the signing of the register the organist, R. S. Coupe, played "O Perfect Love." The bridesmaids were Miss Helen Alexander, cousin of the bride, and F. L. Meunier. Following the ceremony the happy couple left for their honeymoon in the United States and on their return will reside at 74 Wall street.

Galbraith-Turnbull.

A very-pretty wedding was solemnized in Rathwell, Man., on Oct. 29 at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Turnbull by Rev. J. D. McNare, when Helen, the eldest daughter, became the bride of Allan Galbraith, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Galbraith, of Lorneville, N. B. The bride was daintily attired in silver grey Bouche crepe. After the ceremony an informal buffet luncheon was served. The bride's traveling dress was of rosewood tulle and coat of brown trimmed with opossum. She wore a close fitting hat of blue and silver with scarf to match.

After the couple left for the east on the evening train, amid showers of rice and confetti, Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith will reside in West Saint John, where Mr. Galbraith is employed with the C. P. R.

LeBlanc-LeBlanc.

The marriage of Miss Laurida LeBlanc, daughter of E. F. LeBlanc, of Cape Sable, and J. Owen LeBlanc, of College Bridge, Westmorland county, was quietly solemnized in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Saint John on Monday at 5:30. The ceremony was officiated by Rev. Mr. J. D. McNare.
