GE CAMPAIGN IS PLANNED

The Palmolive Company of Canada are completing arrangements for their biggest and best campaign soon to be launched in this city and province. There is a generous offer and one which will be quickly taken advantage of. A number of men are in the city now for the sole purpose of making arrangements for this campaign, under the able supervision of H. R. Ricard, Montreal district manager, and complete plans will be given to the public in a few days through his paper. 3-1

Y. M. C. A. AUXILIARY.
The Ladies Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. at its meeting yesterday afternoon decided to co-operate with the members of the association in the holding of a large fair in the building in March. The evening was presided over by Mrs. G. H. Campbell, the president, and was well attended.

To free your skin from blemishes

JUST before retiring, wash in the usual way, with Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water, finishing with a dash of cold. Then dip the tips of your fingers in warm water and rub them on the face of Woodbury's until they are covered with a heavy creamlike lather. Cover each blemish with a thick coat of this and leave it on for ten minutes. Then rinse thoroughly, first with clear hot water, then with cold.

Begin this treatment tonight. Within a week or ten days you will notice a marked improvement. The Andrew Jergens Company.

can be safely checked, no matter how long the trip or how many transfers have to be made. The locks cannot be opened easily and the bags are reinforced to withstand hard usage. The leather is strong and durable and the prices are reasonable.

ENTERTAINMENT AT EAST ST. JOHN IN AID OF THE BOY SCOUTS

A very successful entertainment in aid of the East St. John Boy Scout Troop, No. 6, under the direction of Lieut. Oswald J. Lawson, their popular and efficient scout master, and an overseas veteran, was given in the Community hall in East St. John last evening. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity and the enthusiastic audience was delighted with the splendid programme, which was given by some of the most popular talent of the city. Every number was heartily enjoyed. The programme was as follows:—Dance and song, Misses M. Calhoun and M. Bailey, accompanist, Mrs. Charles Robinson; recitation, Norman Magnusson; vocal solo, Mrs. Walter Millican; comedy sketch, "The Gremlin Bends," A. Blair, E. Ricker, M. McKenney, E. Paries, Mrs. Stackhouse, Mrs. Patquin and B. Patterson; clarinet solo, Major Thomas Fugli, with piano accompaniment by Miss Heales; vocal duet, Percy Fiewelling and Mrs. Millican; dance, pupils of Miss Littlefield; solo, Miss Jessie McKay; comedy sketch, "Old Gooseberry," J. H. McKenney, T. D. Owens, Marjorie Beyea and M. McKenney; song, Miss M. Bailey; dance, Scotch reel, Miss M. Calhoun; poem, composed by East St. John scouts, Clarence Taylor; song and dance, Miss M. Calhoun; vocal solo, Miss Myrtle Climo; God Save the King; Mrs. A. Heales, accompanist of the evening.

C. N. R. FOREMAN IS UNDER INDICTMENT

Dorchester, Feb. 28.—Before Mr. Justice Chandler at the Westernland circuit king's bench division, the grand jury today found a true bill in the case of Herbert H. Wry, C. N. R. fuel foreman at Moncton, charged with stealing ten tons of coal from the C. N. R. On account of the absence of material witnesses the case was stood over until next term.

EIGHTY-FOURTH BIRTHDAY.

About fifty friends of Mrs. William Sinclair assembled on Tuesday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Hastie, 292 Princess street, for the purpose of giving Mrs. Sinclair a surprise on the occasion of her eighty-fourth birthday. A handsome easy chair was presented to Mrs. Sinclair and she was also the recipient of a quantity of beautiful flowers and many other tokens of regard from far and near. One of the features of the evening was a large birthday cake decorated with eighty-four lighted candles. Mrs. Sinclair in spite of her age is still enjoying fairly good health.
