RECENT WEDDINGS

Maurice Bishop, of Lambert Lake (Me.), was married to Miss Virginia O. Jones, of Bangor (Me.), at the residence of the Rev. F. S. Dowling, of this city, yesterday. The bridegroom is a well-known lumberman of Maine and New Brunswick, and the bride is a daughter of the late Alfred Jones, formerly of the firm of Alfred Jones, Sons Company, of Bangor. After a short honeymoon trip they will reside in Fredericton.

Miss Lois Lillian Inch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Inch of Jerusalem, Kings county, was united in marriage on Monday with Harry J. Magee of Glenwood, Kings county. Rev. Chas. E. Stoddard performed the ceremony. Miss Nina Brown of St. John played the wedding march.

In St. Mary's church, Dorchester, Mass., on October 11, Miss Verma M.

RECENT DEATHS

Many friends will regret to learn of the death of James A. Lingley which occurred yesterday, October 19, at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Percy Lingley, at Welsford, in the seventy-eighth year of his age. Mr. Lingley was a son of the late Edward Lingley. He leaves three sisters, Mrs. Percy Lingley, of Welsford; Mrs. Edwin Taft of Saxons River, Vermont, and Mrs. Brown of Boston. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon from the Episcopal church at Westfield Beach.

Miss Alice Bastarache of Notre Dame, was married on Monday to Amos LeBlanc of Lakeburn. Rev. D. Allan performed the ceremony with pupils mass.

Miss Mildred D. Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Allen of Moncton, was united in marriage yesterday to George Bernard MacAleese of Amherst. Rev. J. A. Ramsay officiated.

Fidelio Comeau of Middle Sackville died yesterday at the age of eighty years.

Alpheus P. Bourque died at his home in Lewisville yesterday morning, as a result of heart disease. He was talking and joking with his family when he passed away. He leaves three sons, seven daughters and one sister.

It was announced in Moncton on Sunday that Mrs. James C. Jordan, formerly Miss Janet Siles of Albert county, died at her home in San Francisco, Cal., at the age of sixty-three years. One of the most generous gifts to the province, the Jordan Sanitarium at River Glade, was donated by Mrs. Jordan after the death of her husband. The building had been the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan, and when it was given as a sanitarium Mrs. Jordan spent considerable money in improvements. Avaris E. O'Brien of Salisbury, whose mother was a cousin of Mrs. Jordan, also received a telegram announcing her death.

Mrs. Mary J. Turner died on Thursday at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Percy Law, Sussex Corner, at the age of sixty-nine years. She leaves one sister, one brother and two daughters, besides several grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Taken from the YEAR BOOK

No. 0261006
Dainty Parian Handbag, Black silk mounted with steel beads. Bead fringe and corded embossed frame 5 1/2 in. long 8 in. deep, $13.50

THE BIRKS YEAR BOOK is more than a catalogue, for, in addition to selling goods, it has another definite function to perform. When you are puzzled by the question "What shall I give?" its duty is to provide the right answer. Because it must do this, great care has been taken to select only the finest merchandise for its pages.

The new YEAR BOOK will be ready for mailing about November 10th. If your name is not on our list a post card will bring a copy to your home.
