ST. JAMES' CHURCH TREAT.
The annual supper and Christmas entertainment of St. James' church was held in the schoolroom last evening and a very enjoyable time was spent. Supper was served at 6 o'clock by the teachers of the Sunday school and about a hundred of the older scholars sat down. After supper the tables were cleared away and a very enjoyable programme consisting of songs, recitations and two short plays were given by the scholars. Miss Emily Pyndel was in charge of the entertainment and Miss Greta Frenovsky acted as pianist. The hall was well filled with the parents and friends of the pupils, and altogether a most pleasant evening was spent. On Tuesday afternoon and evening the entertainment of the Sunday class was held and about one hundred of the younger scholars were present. Supper was served at 5 o'clock and a very pleasant time was spent. After supper Santa Claus made his appearance and distributed presents to all the children, and great excitement prevailed meanwhile. Santa Claus was impersonated by Lieutenant Gordon Holter.

ONE LAD PLEADS GUILTY; OTHERS ARE DISCHARGED

In the county court at Hampton yesterday, Judge Jones presiding, the case of the lads charged with breaking into summer cottages at Westfield came up for consideration. At the morning session James McCord, of the parish of Westfield, was first on the stand and was charged with entering the house of Frank A. MacDonald and stealing certain articles. The judge read the charge and asked him whether he would be tried by speedy trial or a jury. The lad elected to be tried by the judge under speedy trials. Thomas McCord was also charged with entering the MacDonald house and stealing. His choice was also speedy trials. A similar charge was read over to William McCord who elected also the speedy trials.
