JUNE WEDDINGS

Frost-Harding.
The marriage of Miss Bessie May Harding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Harding, and William W. Frost, of the Canadian government postal service, took place yesterday afternoon at 5.30 in the German street Baptist church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Frederick S. Porter, in the presence of relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Frost left on the 6.25 train for a honeymoon trip to Montreal and Quebec and other upper Canadian cities. On their return they will reside in Rockland Road.

Hazen-Parlee.
A quiet wedding took place in St. Mary's church last evening, when Rev. Dr. Raymond united in marriage Miss Jessie Florence Parlee, of this city, and Frank Gilbert Hazen, of Boston. Only immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. Mr. and Mrs. Hazen will reside at 85 Barker avenue.

Baird-Galbraith.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Galbraith, Lorneville, was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon when their youngest daughter, Annie Francis, was united in marriage to John Baird, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baird, of Lorneville, by Rev. William Wallace Malcolm.

The bride, who was daintily attired in cream net over cream silk with gold trimmings, carried a bouquet of white roses, and as she entered the parlor on the arm of her father, her sister played the "Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." The parlor was decorated with lilies, ferns, double buttercups, apple blossoms and forget-me-nots. A special feature was the floral arch under which the contracting parties stood.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Baird will reside in Lorneville.

McQuarrie-Cameron.
The home of Mrs. Sarah Cameron, 28 Leinster street, was the scene of a pretty wedding last night when her daughter, Miss Eliza Gertrude Cameron, was united in marriage to Roy F. McQuarrie, son of the late David McQuarrie, I. C. R. conductor. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock, Rev. G. A. Kibbing, rector of St. John's (Stone) church, being the officiating clergyman. There were no attendants.

The happy event was witnessed by a large number of relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties, and at the conclusion a wedding supper was served. The popularity of both bride and groom was attested by a large number of handsome presents, including a case of silverware from the firm of W. F. Hatheway & Co., Ltd., where the bride had been employed, and a handsome marble clock from the Hatheway employees. The groom's fellow employees in the I. C. R. offices at the island yard presented them with a fine mahogany table, by Rev. Mrs. McQuarrie will reside at 83 Celebration street.

Howard-Morris.
In the Church of the Assumption, Charlottetown, yesterday morning, Rev. A. J. Duke, C. S. S. R., united in marriage Miss Josephine Morris, daughter of John Morris, of Chatham, N. B., and William Patrick Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Howard, of Charlottetown. The bride was attended by her maid, and Frank Howard was the best man. After a trip to the States they will reside at 112 Harrison street.

Coffey-Hayes.
John F. Coffey, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Coffey, Pine street, and Miss Mary, daughter of Harry Hayes, 122 Marsh Road, were married in the cathedral yesterday by Rev. W. W. Meade. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Coffey will live at 583 Main street.

Boyd-Kane.
In St. Rose's Church, Fairville, yesterday morning, Miss Margaret Kane was united in marriage to Charles D. Boyd, by Rev. Charles Collins. The bride was attended by Miss Mary O'Brien, and Walter Boyd was groomsmen.

Feltus-Leaman.
Amherst, June 26—This afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guilford Leaman, their only daughter, Georgia Juanita, was united in marriage to Harry Macdonald Feltus, by Rev. P. J. Stuckhouse. They left on a trip to the Annapolis Valley and will reside in Amherst.

Daily Hints
For the CookRHUBARB PIE THAT WILL NOT RUN OVER.

Cover plate with crust. Peel and cut rhubarb in inch pieces and place on plate as you would apples. Do not heap in the centre, but have even with outer edge. Sprinkle one cup of sugar and meat one half cup flour over rhubarb and cover with top crust. Bake in quite a hot oven.

BAKED TOMATOES STUFFED WITH MACARONI.

This dish is prepared from left-over macaroni which has been baked with cheese in a white sauce. Remove pulp from five large, smooth tomatoes, chop fine and mix with one cup of left-over macaroni. Season well with salt and pepper. Fill the tomato cases, cover with buttered bread crumbs or grated cheese and bake until browned.

SPANISH CHOCOLATE CAKE

One cup sugar, half cup butter, half cup sweet milk, three cups flour, two eggs, one teaspoon soda dissolved in hot water. Put on the stove one cup milk, half cup unsweetened chocolate, grated; stir until dissolved; then stir into it one cup sugar and the yolk of one egg stirred together; when cool flavor with vanilla. While this is cooking heat up the first part of the cake and add the chocolate custard. Bake in layers. Ice on top and between the layers.

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE

Two eggs, one cup sugar, tablespoon butter. Beat sugar and butter to a cream, then add eggs and cup of milk, beating the mixture all the time; two cups flour and two teaspoons baking powder well sifted. Bake in layer pans.

STRAWBERRY FILLING—One pint strawberries, mixed with one cup of sugar. Spread between layers and on top. The top layer may be covered with a meringue which is made with white of one egg and tablespoon of powdered sugar.

FOILED AGAIN.

Resounding thumps were applied to the portmanteau. "Ah-hah!" joyfully cried the householder, thrusting his head out of the second-storey window. "You're here! Opportunity knocking at my door, and—"

"Naw!" was the reply. "I'm the collector for them there cyclopedias you bought!"—Satire.

AMUSING THE BABY.

One day two ladies, one of whom carried a baby, entered a furniture store, and signified their desire to look at some carpets. It was very warm, but the sales man cheerfully showed roll after roll, until the perspiration literally streamed from his every pore. Finally one of the ladies asked the other if she did not think it was time to go.

"Not quite," was the answer of her companion; and then, in an undertone, she added, "Baby! I like to see him roll them out, and we've plenty of time to catch the train."

TRYING CASE.

Man is often placed in an embarrassing position, and for the time being would give all he is worth to be out of it. The most heart-rending case probably on record is explained by a note which was recently picked up in a rural post office. It read as follows:—"Dearest ——— the reason I didn't lift when you left at me in the post office yesterday was because I had a bile on my face and can't laugh. If I laugh she'll bust. But I love you, bile or no bile, lift or no lift."

There are 200,000,000 tons of coal in Ireland only waiting to be mined.
