TORONTO MINISTER RESIGNS

Rev. R. J. Garrett who has resigned the pastorate of Toronto Memorial Baptist church and at the end of August will become pastor of the church at Forest, Ont. succeeding Rev. J. S. Leckie.

MARITIME BOARD OF TRADE

Four resolutions with respect to better roads were consolidated into one, and thoroughly discussed. The subject was brought to the attention of the several local governments, and it was hoped that in New Brunswick, at least a good record convention would have been called by the local government before the close of the session but it was found impossible to do this on account of the prolonged session and the near approach of the coronation.

The matter of quicker despatch of the English mails from Rimouski eastward in the winter and early spring was taken up in parliament by Hon. Mr. Emmerson on the request of Mr. Lodge, of the Moncton board, and thoroughly thrashed out, many of the maritime members taking part in the discussion. The post office department tried to minimize the delay to the mails, but the figures were against them. Mr. Lodge furnished additional information to Hon. Mr. Emmerson, and the subject received another airing in parliament. But the matter stands where it has so long. The Intercolonial Railway will not put on a train without payment by the post office department, and the latter declines to pay for a special train. The interests of the maritime provinces in the meantime continue to suffer.

The subject of immigration was thoroughly discussed, and a resolution passed thereon demanding that the maritime provinces receive more attention and consideration at the hands of the immigration officials in Great Britain. A copy of the resolution was sent to the superintendent of immigration at Ottawa.

The resolution from the Moncton board re municipal indebtedness was debated, and by request was allowed to stand over. As you will see by the president's report, the discussion has borne some fruit in New Brunswick in legislation relating to sinking funds, registration of bonds, etc. Freight rates to and from Prince Edward Island—Copies of the resolution were sent to the several transportation bodies, and I received the usual assurances.

Your secretary feels that no advantage can be gained in this respect short of placing the government railways under the Dominion Railway Commission. So many and great advantages have accrued to the people of this dominion from the decision of that board, it seems anomalous that any railway system in the dominion should be exempted by special legislation from its jurisdiction.

Sheep Raisin g

A resolution was passed relating to the fostering of the sheep industry, but when your secretary secured copies of the legislation of the three provinces relating to the protection of sheep, he found that the full legislation had been provided for the safety of the flocks. Provision is made for the killing of dogs chasing sheep, and for the recovery of the value of sheep killed. The difficulty rests with the farmers themselves mainly.

Dogs at large are incompatible with successful sheep-raising, but the claims of the dog appear to bulk larger with the average farmer than those of the sheep, and a large and profitable industry has become almost extinguished. The dominion government commission on the sheep industry has toured Great Britain and the dominion and it is hoped that its report, which should be ready shortly, may bring about a revival of that great and valuable industry.

A strong resolution on the conservation of Canada's natural resources was passed. At the present time the government conservation commission is taking evidence and obtaining information as to the natural wealth of this dominion, and public opinion is being roused as to the necessity of conserving for the people the wealth of water powers, lumber, etc., in the dominion.

On September 20, last, a circular was sent to each of the boards of trade of the maritime provinces giving the text of the several resolutions passed by the maritime board at Charlottetown, August, and asking that several boards would bring their opinion to bear on the members of the dominion parliament and the house of assembly to secure the furtherance of the objects covered by the resolutions. On January 3 last another circular was issued covering copies of that of September 20, and calling attention to the fact that M. P.'s and M. J.'s would shortly be resuming their duties after the Christmas recess, furnishing the boards an opportunity of bringing the resolutions again before the members.

I have requested the president to suggest that one hour of one of the sessions of this board be given to the subject:—"How best can the work of the maritime board be made effective?" A heart-to-heart discussion may bring to light the link that is missing between the resolutions and results.

Correspondence has been had with parties in Chester, Lower Steviack, Sydney and Sussex re boards of trades in these places, but satisfactory replies could not be obtained.

LUCKY SEVENTH SONS.

(Dundee Advertiser.)
In the early days of the reign of the late King Leopold of Belgium a seventh son was born to a Brussels woman, and when the king heard of it and was told that the boy was the seventh successive one, asked that no girl had come to the family, he asked to be the baby's godfather. Ever since then every seventh son born in Brussels has had the same honor, and the mothers have received gifts in keeping with their station in life. King Albert in carrying out the old usage a short time ago, had some difficulty because the seventh son was twins. He could not stand for both boys, because that would give the family two Alberts. The remedy was found by Queen Elizabeth, who suggested that her little son, the duke of Brabant, be the godfather of the eighth boy, who consequently received the name of Leopold.

I. O. G. T. GRAND LODGE IN ANNUAL SESSION

Plaster Rock, N. B., Aug. 15—(Special)

Grand Lodge I. O. G. T. opened this evening. The officers and delegates attending are: J. C. Jackson, William Scott, Archie Morrell, Mrs. Florence Crossman, Moncton; E. N. Stockford, St. John; John D. Scammell, A. C. M. Lawson, A. L. Carter, Fredericton; L. R. Hetherington, Mrs. Hetherington, Henry H. Stuart, Newcastle; J. B. Stevenson, Arthurette; H. C. Ricker, Millville; Miss Elsie Hanley, Peniac; C. M. Colwell, Jemseg; Rev. Mr. Gould, Dover; Miss Mary Beattie, Beachwood; F. W. Belyea, Cambridge; P. Chase, Cambridge; Michael Kelly, Jerusalem; Mrs. Vanderbeck, Riley Brook; Mrs. Geo. Ridgwell, Plaster Rock; Mrs. Flanders, Maplevue, and others.

Grand Chief Templar Jackson's report pointed out that the loss of membership in the grand lodge which he had reported as having been three years ago when the number of organizers in the field was reduced. Hitherto there had been good gains. This year with organizers employed only a few months there was another loss. He advocated keeping prominent organizers employed. There had been no appeals to settle during the year. He had reorganized Albert District Lodge, Coronation Lodge at Charlottetown.

He complained that several lodges had died because of the executive not being kept informed by the local deputies. Temperance legislation was at a standstill in New Brunswick. The Temperance Federation had evidently fallen asleep. Kent and Northumberland Sons of Temperance were laying recommendations before the grand lodge which he approved. New Brunswick should help in the prohibition fight in Maine.

Grand Secretary Hetherington's seventh annual report showed a falling off of the total active membership from 4,000 to 2,715. Thirteen lodges were over four quarters in arrears. Seven members had died during the year, one was expelled, 330 suspended, 200 withdrawn by card, 40 resigned, 201 lost by forfeiting charters. On the other hand, 323 were initiated, 17 received on card and 30 reinstated.

Mrs. Jackson reported that juvenile work showed a decrease of temples of from ten to nine and of members from 603 to 542. She was compelled to retire because of ill health.

Grand Superintendent Kelly recommended that in view of the nearness of the general elections we pledge ourselves, in a manner satisfactory to us to support prohibition, and that where no candidate gives such assurances, we nominate independent prohibition candidates; second, that all clergymen be made honorary members of lodges; third, that every member become a missionary for the order.

The temple committee reported having handled over the subscription list to the national temple. The propagation committee reported less work done this year than usual. More organization work was needed.

In society it is much easier to do the proper thing than the right thing. Every church has a nave, but, unfortunately, it isn't always spelled that way.

MONARCH KNIT

is the best woolen wear your money will buy anywhere.

That's a straight, emphatic statement which we are prepared to prove—

This way: Every merchant handling "Monarch Knit" will guarantee our garments to give absolute satisfaction.

Then it's assorted, combined, selected or made to order. Every ounce of the material is imported from Australia, where the best wool comes from.

Then it's assorted, combined, selected and spun into yarns which have made "Monarch Knit" famous—and knit types, after being specially preshrunk.

So—when you want the best sweater, coat or toque tell your merchants that you want "Monarch Knit."

THREE CANADIAN OFFICERS TO ENGLAND

Cols. Biggar, Williams and Bur-

stall to Attend The Autumn

Manoeuvres

(Ottawa Journal).

The Canadian government has been requested to send three officers to the autumn manoeuvres in England, and have selected the following:

Lieut.-Col. Biggar, Director of Transport and Supplies, to report on the Quarter-master-General's branch.

Lieut.-Col. Williams, Inspector of Cavalry, to report on that branch.

Lieut.-Col. Burstall, Inspector of Artillery, to be attached to that arm of the service.

All of these officers have had considerable experience in their various branches; and their report should be of great service to the Canadian authorities.

The war records taken from militia list are as follows:

Biggar, J. Lyons (staff), South African War, 1899-1900. Special officer, South Africa. Served with supply column from April to July, 1900. Appointed staff officer for Canadians on lines of communication and chief base, July, 1900, to January, 1901. Queen's medal with three clasps.

Burstall, H. E. (2nd Lt. R. C. R.), South African War, 1899-1900. Operations in Orange Free State, February to May, 1900, including operations at Paardeberg (18-27 Feb.); actions at Poplar Grove (7 March); Deffontaines (10 March); Hout Nek (11 May); Zand River (10 May). Operations in the Transvaal May and June, 1900, including actions near Johannesburg (29 May), Pretoria (4 June). Operations in Orange River Colony and Eastern and Western Transvaal, June to November, 1900. Queen's medal with four clasps. Operations in the Transvaal, April, 1901, to May, 1902. King's medal with two clasps: Donsvalles, Lord Roberts, 1st March, 1902; Lord Kitchener, 23rd June, 1902. London Gazette, 17th June and 29th July, 1902. Brevet of major.

Williams, V. A. S. (1 Regt. C. M. R.), South African War, 1899-1900. Operations in the Orange Free State, February to May, 1900, including actions at Vet River (5-6 May), and Zand River (10 May). Operations in the Transvaal in May and June, 1900, including actions near Johannesburg (29 May), Pretoria (4 June), and Diamond Hill (11-12 June). Operations in the Transvaal, east of Pretoria, July to 29th November, 1900, including actions at Reik Vis (16 July), Belfast (28-27 Aug., 1900). Despatches 2. Brevet of major. Queen's medal with five clasps.

QUESTION FOR MR. FOSTER

(From the Toronto Star)

At Saturday's Conservative meeting Hon. George E. Foster asked where Ontario and Canada would be today if the United Empire Loyalists and the patriots of 1812 and 1866 had held back and gauged their loyalty by the price of peas and beans. Mr. Foster is quite right. This country would have had no existence if the patriots of old had held back and gauged their loyalty by the price of peas and beans. Why, then, do Mr. Foster and his friends today tell us that our loyalty depends on the maintenance of taxes on peas and beans?

Reciprocity will bring the wanders home to share in the new prosperity that will come to the maritime provinces.
