GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

WIFE CALLS UPON GREEN-EYED DEVIL

Serious Complications Ensnare in "Tangled Threads," When Well Known Trick is Tried on Jealous Husband

Bessie Barriscale, the captivating blonde star, has a sympathetic role in her latest production, "Tangled Threads," to be shown at the Imperial tomorrow. The story is a society drama of daring conception and ingenuity.

When Margaret Wayne (Bessie Barriscale) realized that her husband, John Rutherford, had become addicted to the habit of "stepping out" five or six nights a week, she came to the conclusion that he needed to be impressed with the charms of the wife he was neglecting. In order to make him jealous, she pretended a desperate affair with one of those handsome bachelor "friends of the family."

But Margaret overplayed her hand. The young wife's accomplice refused to admit that it was a put-up job when the husband discovered them together in the "friend's" apartment late at night, and the husband secured a divorce. When her ex-husband married a fascinating foreign lady of easy virtue and was given the custody of their child, Margaret felt that fate had dealt unkindly with her.

The "friend," however, discovered he had a conscience and took a very original and dramatic method of removing the lady of easy virtue from John's sphere, although it was fatal both to himself and the second wife, but it resulted in a sensational climax to a complicated situation.

The cast includes Nigel Barrie, Thomas Holding, little Ben Alexander, Rosemary Theby, Henry Kolker, all supporting Miss Barriscale.

RATTLING GOOD IS THIS NEW BILL

Dancing Dorans Marvels of Grace.
—Four Other Excellent Novelties

The perfection of grace, and light on their feet as this down floating in the breeze, are The Dancing Dorans, a surprise novelty dancing team, now at the Opera House as one of the features of a rattling good vaudeville entertainment. This act came direct to St. John from New York's premier vaudeville theatre, The Palace, and for those who enjoy real good dancing they are a genuine treat.

There are four other splendid novelties on the bill as well, and a good serial picture. Tonight is the last time for this programme—two performances—at 7.30 and 9—daylight time.

The regular change of bill opening tomorrow night, offers the Forbes children, a clever pair of juvenile entertainers; Ed Markey, comedian, singer and juggler; Brennan and Murley in comedy songs, chats and athletics; Paul Perching Company in a musical novelty, "The Musical Flower Garden;" Stewart and Mercer in a sensational aerial and ring offering; and the fourth in the Marie Walcamp series of western adventure stories in picture form. Tomorrow night at 7.30 and 9.
