Pope and Kaiser.

It is no new thing for an Emperor and a Pope to come into collision. It is now whether it was just or right to introduce the Catholic cathecism among Protestants when the Protestants, who were in the majority, were not allowed to use the Bible in the public schools. The discussion went on. One reverend father "frankly confessed that the Catholics stood before the country as the enemies of the public schools," and added that they would as soon send their children to the pest house or bury them, as let them go to the public schools. Another ture, assembled a Conventicle of Bishops at 1076, and made them pass a sentence of deposition against Gregory VII. He sent this decree to Rome with an insolent epistle of his own. But the monk of OSBORN Catholic catechism. This extraordinary Pope and Kaiser. Received by the above Steamships: Awarded the First Prize for 1873 Intercolonial Railway! For Advertisements of Governments, Coporations, Railways and Stesmboat Companys and other public bodies,—for Theatres, Concerts, Lectures and other public entertainments, first insertion, $1.00; each subsequent insertion 50 cents. For ordinary mercantile transient advertising, first insertion, 60 cts.; each subsequent insertion, 50 cts. Advertisements of resolved to appeal to the Pope, and conciliate him by penitence and submission. In the midst of a bitter winter he crossed the Alps and presented himself, barefoot and in penance shirt, at the gate of Gregory's castle at Canossa. The great pontiff seemed to take pleasure in macerating this bruised reed, and kept him waiting three days his penitence turning to gall

[From the Boston Journal.] In Open War on the Public Schools In the proceedings of the Roman Catholic Convention at St. Louis on Friday ement of the Catholic policy in regard to our public schools. We are St. John, N. B. very glad to have the statement take so decided a form, and come from so athoritative a source. Hitherto those persons D. E. DUNHAM, who have asserted that the Catholics desired the destruction of our school system Rooms, 1 and 2 Bayard's Building, have been looked upon as alarmists. Now (UP STAIRS.)
we have fortunately all doubt removed, and we invite the attention of any who do

Persons intending to 'uild or Remodel their Buildings would do w-ll to call at he above office before consulting caroenters, mesons, &c. as the Subscriber guarantees to give all the information that can be obtained from the most practical mechanic, his theory being Beauty. Economy and Strength, so combined as to make the outlay worth, when finished, what it cost. The resolution which evoked the discussion was one which declared "that the present system of public schools is a curse to our country and flood-gate of atheism and ci sensuality; and of civil, social and national corrupion." Mayor Kelly of Richmond, Va., representing in his official position, as he admitted, a constituency which is 80 per cent. Protestant, thought the resolution should be modified, and believed that the Catholics should be satisfied with driving the Bible out of the public schools. A delegate from Pennsylvania expressed the same idea, but was interrupted by an irate priest, who declared that the purpose was not to delegate the public schools, and working Harness, Whips declared that the purpose was not to drive the Bible out of the public schools, but to introduce the correct version and the
