63rd Annual Report.

In presenting this, the Sixty-Third Annual Report of our school, we would in the first place return thanks to God for His goodness to us during the year that is past. It is something remarkable that in a school the size of ours, there has none been called away by death either in the teaching staff or among the scholars.

I would take this opportunity of kindly urging upon the parents in the congregation the desirability of sending their children to the S. S. as regularly as possible, and not only send but come with them and visit the school occasionally and thereby encourage both the teachers and scholars, by showing your interest in the work.
