

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Special Notes.

Rev. J. Hugh Jenner, Springfield, Mass., preaches to-day, and next Lord's Day. Among other Pastors expected to fill our pulpit, are—Revds. F. H. Waring, St. John; F. M. Holt, Lynn, Mass.; E. E. Gates, Noank, Conn.; T. B. Johnson, Lynn; G. W. MacPherson, Nyack, N. Y.; J. H. Francis, Brooklyn, N. Y., and Dr. Pratt, N. Y.

Bro. S. Cummings delivered two excellent sermons last Sunday. The Morning subject—"Why sit we here until we die," was suggestive and very helpful. Christians were exhorted to be active in the Master's service, and sinners were urged to "Come and taste and see" the goodness of God. Bro. Cummings may come and preach again soon.

The workers at our Mission report excellent meetings—full house, attentive listeners, many willing testimonies for Jesus, and a number anxious to know the way of Salvation. Helpers are needed to go to the assistance of these workers, a rich blessing awaits all who go.

Convention Fund. The Committee have received a number of subscriptions during the week. They will not be able to call on all the members, hence ask that to-day the amounts to this fund be laid on late; that it may be sent forward to Treasurer Monday, 29th inst., so as to receive credit in this year's accounts.

W. J. GATES,
Chairman.
