A WOULD-BE MURDERESS.

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 18 -A singular case of attempted arsenical poisoning and attempted shooting by a lady in high social standing in Jersey City has created a sensation here. The names of the parties are withheld, but it is alleged that the lady in question had become morbidly affected through anxiety on ac-count of her husband's sickness. Last Saturday night the lady arose from her bed and put two large capsules in her husband's mouth, thinking him asleep. The husband removed both of them unnoticed and laid them aside. A few moments afterward, having arisen to go into a bath room, he heard something click and turning suddealy found his wife confronting him with a loaded revolver. A scuffie ensued and the ludy was overpowered. She is thought to be hopelessly insans. The capsules were analyzed and found to contain forty-four grains of arsenic. The parties reside near Van Vorst square, the most fashionable part of the city.
