

5. All motions must be in writing, and signed by the mover and seconder before being open for discussion.

6. Any of these rules may be amended or suspended by a majority vote of the delegates without notice.

