

REGULATIONS.

1 Entries will be received by the Honorary Secretary up to noon on Wednesday, September 5th, and should be made through Secretaries of the clubs to which players belong. With entries for the Handicap a copy of his Club Handicap should be sent. Fees should accompany the entries. Entries for Consolation Handicap, No. 4 will be received up to Friday evening, September 7th.

2 The order in which matches are to be played may be changed at the discretion of the committee.

3 Each competitor in Handicap matches will be required to keep both his own and his opponent's scores, and hand the same to the Secretary after the match, with signatures.

4. The St. Andrew's rules of play (1899) shall govern all matches with the following local exceptions : (1) Any ball played over the river front may without search be considered a lost ball. (2) A lost ball is not to be considered as a lost hole in match play. The penalty is the loss of one stroke. The second ball shall be dropped as near as possible to where the first ball was lost. (3) A ball played inside the embankment of Fort George may be lifted and played from the tee at the teeing ground with the loss of one (1) stroke ; i.e., playing the third stroke. (4) A ball lying in the wheel ruts indicated by small blue flags may be lifted and dropped behind the hazard without penalty. (5) In match or medal play a ball may, under penalty of one stroke, be lifted out of any hazard and dropped behind the same, (with the exception of Fort George.)

The Niagara Golf Links

Are picturesquely situated at the mouth of the Niagara River, and encircle a large stretch of common, in which is situated a ruined fort. The course consists of 18 holes.

NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE is twelve miles below Niagara Falls, from which it is reached by half an hour's picturesque journey.
