

7.—The President shall preside at all Meetings, ^{President's duties} when it shall be his duty to enforce the By-Laws and Constitution, and his privilege to give the casting vote in case of a "tie". He shall have the power to call, or cause the Secretary to call a General, Special, or Committee Meeting when it may seem to him expedient in the interest of the Club to do so.

8.—The Vice-President shall, in the absence of the Vice-President, be vested with all the functions of the President's duties.

9.—In the absence of both the President and Vice-Chairman's ^{elect} President from any meeting, a member of the Committee may be elected to act as Chairman for the dispatch of business for which the meeting may be convened.

10.—The Secretary shall read the minutes of the last meeting which when confirmed, shall be signed ^{Secretary's duties} by himself and the President or Chairman; he shall read all correspondence, and shall write in detail an account of the proceedings of each meeting; he shall keep a record of all correspondence passing through his hands; of all actions of whatsoever nature instituted by, or at the instigation of the Club; he shall from time to time with the concurrence of the President or Vice-President call General, Special or Committee Meetings as may be deemed expedient, and he shall hand to the Treasurer a list of all subscriptions, fines, and confiscations at such