COINCIDENTAL.

Monetary Times, August 14th, 1909.

Already this year, the influx, according to the authorities, has been almost record-breaking. In one instance a prospective Canadian settler brought with him $25,000, an extraordinary heavy pile. In most cases, the amount naturally was much smaller. United States cattle and live stock have also been changing our prairie census figures. One estimate of the value of these other possessions is $350 per head.

Winnipeg Saturday Post, August 21st, 1909.

Already this year, the influx, according to the authorities, has been almost record-breaking. In one instance a prospective Canadian settler brought with him $25,000, an extraordinary heavy pile. In most cases, the amount naturally was much smaller. United States cattle and live stock have also been changing our prairie census figures. One estimate of the value of these other possessions is $350 per head.

Monetary Times, September 11th, 1909.

The most serious bone of contention, so far as fire insurance interests are concerned, is the clause permitting, under certain conditions, companies not complying with the legal requirements as to deposits, reserves and supervision, to do business in Canada. It is the old story of underground underwriting. The manufacturers, it will be recollected, fought hard that they might place their insurance where, when and how they desired. The insurance companies doing business in the Dominion, making deposits, maintaining reserves and submitting to Government supervision also battled strenuously for what may be called their rights.

* * * * *

Not content with the string of stock exchanges from coast to coast, in which line two Montreal and Toronto institutions have the advantages of age and prestige, various promoters are organizing the Dominion Exchange, Limited. They are empowered to do a general exchange business and furnish information regarding the standing and stability of all corporations and persons.

Winnipeg Saturday Post, September 18th, 1909.

The most serious bone of contention, so far as fire insurance interests are concerned, is the clause permitting, under certain conditions, companies not complying with the legal requirements as to deposits, reserves and supervision, to do business in Canada. It is the old story of underground underwriting. The manufacturers, it will be recollected, fought hard that they might place their insurance where, when and how they desired. The insurance companies doing business in the Dominion, making deposits, maintaining reserves and submitting to Government supervision also battled strenuously for what may be called their rights.

* * * * *

Not content with the string of stock exchanges from coast to coast, in which line two Montreal and Toronto institutions have the advantages of age and prestige, various promoters are organizing the Dominion Exchange, Limited. They are empowered to do a general exchange business and furnish information regarding the standing and stability of all corporations and persons.

And so ad infinitum.

When in London call on The Monetary Times, 225 Outer Temple, Strand.