They are splendid fellows, all of them, and they are all very grateful for the good things sent to them from our homeland in Canada.

The weather is very bad over here, snow rain and fog, but we are all well, and we stand it well. Please excuse the pencil, we don't have pens and ink in our dug-outs. Thanking you again for your kind gift and your good wishes.

Yours Sincerely, Sgt. Albert Glen, A. Co., 29th Battalion, Canadian R. F. C. France.
