NORTHUMBERLAND AND
CARLETON UP IN ARMS

Nominations Record Sentiment Against Hazen Government

Mr. Upham Carried the Crowd on the Hustings

Conservative Candidate in Carleton Made Poor
Showing

Liberal Candidate's Strong Arrangement of Government Record

WOODSTOCK, N. B., Nov. 24.—The nomination proceedings at the court house today attracted a fairly large gathering.

Sheriff Tompkins and his clerk, Chas.
Comben, opened court at ten o'clock.
Soon afterwards the papers of Wm.
Jas. Owens were handed in by L. Col.
D. McLeod. Those of Geo. Wm.
Upham being presented by Hon. W.
F. Jones.

Neither James R. H. Simms nor Hon.
Geo. W. White has announced their intention to run as independents, put in an appearance. Mr. Upham's papers were signed by Ralph Briggs, Harold Harnish, George Burd, Samuel Harper, Stanley Harper, Solomon Perley, Wm. Everett, John McGraw, Prof. Everett, Byron Robinson, J. B.
Malloy, Beecher Haynes, Chas. Wheeler, Thos. Lindsay, Geo. Bell, David Henderson, W. E. Shaw, Ernest Huggins, Stephen Peabody, Jas. W. Gallagher, Jos. Power, E. Clarke, Alex.
Beaton, Coles Dugan, Albert Fields, Reginald Dibble, Walter Estabrooks, John Thompson, John Brown, E. W.
Hedder, A. Field, P. B. Carvell, Adam H. Stewart, Henry Teddlie, John Brewer, Johnston Stairs, Geo. A.
Sharp, Herbert Holmes and many others. W. J. Owens' nominators were John McIntosh, Wm. Armstrong, Frank Horne, E. R. Teed, A. F. Lockhart, J.
F. McDevide, C. B. Watson, Alfred Bell, Alf. Blackmore, John Thos. Baggins, L. R. Harding, John Lindsay, Marvin Hayward, Thos. Strong and several others.

At two o'clock, no objections having been entered, the sheriff declared his count about to be closed.
Col. Vines on behalf of W. J. Owens demanded a poll. The least objectionable name and adjourned his court until the fifth day of December for declaration. There was a large crowd in attendance eager to hear the rivals, and the sheriff was pestered as chairman.

The sheriff in calling the crowd to order announced that L. S. Baymond, president of the Moral Reform Society, had a few words to say. That gentleman spoke briefly concerning the aim and principles of the society.
He said last winter a good start had been made in the direction of bringing about clean politics in so far as the conduct of elections is concerned. He some reason in the late federal contest the reform element had taken no active part, yet he believed that work in the future would impress itself upon the great body of the electorate. Now the society felt like asking both parties to cleanse themselves entirely free from the use of money. He then read an agreement drawn up to this effect which he was proud to say had just been signed without reservation by the two candidates. In common he called upon both sides to do their utmost to observe the pledge entered into by their representatives. The sheriff then introduced the government candidate.

SCANT APPLAUSE

Mr. Owens was received with, but scant applause, fully three out of every four present being supporters of Upham. After a few introductory remarks the Tory candidate said: "Last March you declared in favor of a change of government on the strength of the pledges made in the line of better government. I think I am safe in saying they have carried out all their promises. (Derisive laughter.)
"After a convention a few days ago I was asked to run as the Hazen candidate and I gladly accepted the honor.
In respect to the road law, for that was all the talk last year, and it seems to me to be the same yet, they promised to put the control of the roads in the hands of the councils, and I think they have done it. (Cries of "Oh, oh.") I don't think their new law is yet in force, and it won't be until next season.
"A voice—"The first of January."
"Well, that isn't yet, and if the law doesn't suit the premier he has said he will change it. I think it is the first time ever made provision for winter roads. (Cries of "You are lying.") "A gentleman upriver told me the other day the Hazen government should not be condemned after only six months in office, and that he was right. I am a farmer, and it's up to the farmers to send me to the assembly if they want a member in touch with their interests. The past three years have been a failure. The government has been found with the party I represent because sometimes we did not have temperance candidates. I can tell you I will vote for any legislation along temperance lines, I am a temperance man, and on that ground I ask your support. I think we have honest government now, and as a farmer I want the votes of the farming class."

"Then look at their new timber regulations. I have lumbered many years.
I know a good deal about our friends and I venture the assertion that if the new regulations are put in force and If you vote for me I will do the best I can to merit your approval." Mr. Owens' address lasted precisely nine minutes.

LOUD CHEERS FOR UPHAM.

A cheer that fairly raised the roof greeted the introduction of Mr. Upham, who in the course of an address that occupied forty-five minutes, handled the Hazen government's policy without gloves. He struck right out from the shoulder, paying special attention to the provincial secretary, who was in the audience and who experienced the greatest dressing down he has received for many a day.

Mr. Upham said in part:— "My opponent has asked for your votes because he is a farmer. I, too, am a farmer as well as being something of a lumberman. Last week I heard Mr. Owens tell his hearers in the Opera House that he was the first farmer who ever ran in this country, but he was badly mistaken. Everybody remembers at least three or four last March I was a candidate for the assembly. I was beaten chiefly owing to two things—the unpopularity of the road law and the multitude of promises on the part of the Hazen following, but I ask you in God's name, have they fulfilled a single one of these pledges? (Cries of "No, not one.") "I see the hon. provincial secretary here today. I want to ask him, providing the walls of the many places where he spoke prior to the March election could speak, would he dare enter one such place now? If he did he would be ashamed to death. (Applause.)

WALLS WOULD BE SHOCKED.
"The very walls would be shocked.
I am as I told you and as you know, a farmer. What has this government done for the farmers? Prior to their accession to power the farmers were well looked after. We had a farmer at the head of the department, but now we've got a country doctor. If you want to plaster your home home you will surely call in a blacksmith.
Mr. Hazen's cabinet very conveniently found they had no more use for us farmers after they got our votes. Had there been a practical man in the government something tangible might have been done for agriculture, but so far about all they have handed out is instead of bread is a stone. The great commissioner idea to find out what the farmers need is surely an admission of incompetence on the part of this know nothing government. We can't afford to educate green men for responsible official positions. Never has there been such neglect of farming interests as under the Hazen government. This summer they failed to send us any dairy superintendent. They dismissed the one we had and couldn't find a new appointee. Largely owing to this fact not a single pound of cheese was produced in this country. My business has made me something of a judge of stock. Our need is for good, heavy draught horses, the kind the former governments used to import.
The people are simply crazy at the

summer they failed to send us any
judge of stock. Our need is for good,
