THE TOLL OF LIFE

It is very seldom that people stop to think of the large number of workaday men and even women, who by very reason of their employment curtail the length of their lives and are subject to bodily ills.

For instance in the United States it is estimated that sixty thousand workers become poisoned each year who have to do with lead. Now it is believed that a counter-acting remedy has been discovered and it is to be sincerely hoped that such will prove to be the case.

Many other illustrations might be given. The many dangers to which railway engineers, firemen and in fact all railway hands are subjected is only too fully recorded in the terrible record each year of the dead and maimed.

A like state of affairs, only in a lesser degree simply because the army of workers is less, prevails with regard to bridge workers, structural steel buildings and other branches of that trade, mining, blasting emery wheel work, electric line work and in fact many other almost countless vocations. In short, in no one instance of labor is there freedom from mishap, some more and others to a less extent, but there nevertheless.

OUTSIDE RETAIL ADVERTISEMENTS.

In St. Catharines a business man has made a protest against one of the papers carrying large display advertisements from the retail merchants on the other side of the line. The object is of course to induce residents of that city to just step across the border and do their shopping there.

As far as The Courier is concerned, it has more than once declined advertising contracts from mercantile houses of Toronto and Hamilton, for the reason that it feels that the best possible course is for Brantfordites to trade with their own local establishments. They can do just as well here, and often better, and the mutual upbuilding of any community in a loyal and all round way is the very salt of future development.

NEVER BEEN KISSED.

Dr. Annie T. Quensal, a noted Zoologist of a Swedish University, who with her husband, will attend a big congress of Zoologists in New York stated during the course of an interview in Gotham, that she had never been kissed yet—not even by her husband. This is all the more remarkable for the reason that she is described as strikingly pretty and charming.

Here it is in her own language: "My husband has never kissed me, and I have never kissed him. Neither of us have ever kissed anyone. We are both very active members of the Continental Anti-kissing League. We believe kissing is unsanitary and a menace to good health."

Just how they manifest their affection is not very clear but perhaps they rub noses. Even then, what is to prevent microbes infection and attacks on that organ except by the handkerchief route personally applied, are usually ranged in the assault class.

Dr. Annie further adds with regard to the feelings of herself and her better half or one-tenth, or whatever his ranking may be:—

"We feel that if persons, having been properly warned of the risk they run, persist in kissing, sufficient punishment is meted to them by the thousands of bacilli that will be left on the lips."

In other words, the next time the average young man asks for the privilege of a kiss with some fair and bewitching damsel and she remarks in pleased accents "Don't Kiss!" he'll know what she really means.

Now Annie, as a learned person, is well aware of the fact that one set of bacilli will kill off another set. That fact established, how does she know that in the first place it wasn't based on the mutual and beneficial slaughter scheme?

It's no go Annie. As long as there are men and women, and mothers and fathers, and children, this kissing business is going to continue, no matter if you own matrimonial seas had nary a smack.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Those happy looking kiddies to be seen on the streets these days are of course that way because the end of their vacation is drawing so near. If you doubt this, ask one of them.

So they are going to introduce moving pictures on Atlantic liners. Well, there is nothing very new about that. For countless years they have been seen on all kinds of craft during stormy weather, and even otherwise.

Hamilton has just completed two weeks races. It goes without question that all who flocked there, did so for the sole reason that they have a patriotic interest in the improvement of horses. There couldn't have been any other reason; perish the thought.

It is announced that the trip of leader Rowell to Europe is for the purpose of studying social conditions there. He had better come back home and try to straighten out the unsocial conditions at present existing in such a marked way among his own followers.

The Toronto Globe reaffirms with much emphasis, that it still sticks to reciprocity, and hopes to see it adopted next election. Some kind friend ought to take the organ aside and inform it in gentle terms that the movement is good and dead—in fact was still born.

The hot weather seems to have got on the extreme language departments of Ald. Roche and Auditor Gough, of St. Thomas. Here is a portion of what occurred at a recent meeting:

Ald. Roche—"I don't care what you say, you're a dirty, low, mean sneak."

Mr. Gough—"Don't say too much or I'll slap your face."

Ald. Roche—"I'll put you out. You're no gentleman and you never were one."

Enter Officer Lousch. Ald. Roche—"Mr. Lousch, put this man out."

Officer Lousch removes his hat puts on a fierce expression—and hesitates.

Mr. Gough—"He can't put me out of here any more than you can."

Ald. Roche—"You're a dirty low sneak, since you got promoted from the pop-wagon."

Mr. Gough—"Don't tell me that or I'll kick the liver out of you."

Mr. Gough starts for Ald. Roche but is intercepted by Peace Preservers Price and Trot, who advise the belligerent gentlemen to control their angry passions.

Mr. Gough to Ald. Roche—"I'll show you where you're at. I'll show you."

What the Other Fellow Thinks

A Standing Emergency Toronto Telegram: An emergency that takes $230,000,000 out of the people of the British Isles every year must be an emergency that affects Britain's safety. An emergency that affects Britain's safety is an emergency that affects Canada's honor.

There is nothing mythical about an emergency that costs the people of the British Isles $230,000,000 every year.

The Ways of Financiers Toronto Star: Sir William Mackenzie has gone to England for a month and anything else he can bring back to keep that fifteen million company.

Day of Electrification Galt Reporter: The announcement that the C. P. E. has completed plans for a new electric line from Niagara Falls to Hamilton and possibly to Toronto would seem to encourage the belief that there is little likelihood of the Lake Erie and Northern (generally understood to be backed by the C. P. R.) using steam on its road.

The electrification of steam roads is growing in popularity each year, and over 700 miles of steam railways in the United States have been electrified and are now in operation as such, while plans have been announced for the electrification of over 1000 miles more.

Crops Are Important. St. Catharines Journal: There are indications that the money market will be much improved within another month. The harvesting of crops both in Eastern and Western Canada puts thousands of dollars in circulation upon a national asset and not something of a fictitious value.

New Brant Sanitarium

mention of the excellent work of Mr. Watts and the present vice-president, Mr. Cook. Mayor Hartman said the institution was a credit to them and a credit to the City of Brantford. He said there was no one who knew the dreaded disease more than those in public offices and mentioned a case under his notice at the present time. He mentioned the gift of Mr. Cockshutt and said he felt sure the City of Brantford and the County of Brant will never regret the money expended, and in conclusion said he trusted the institution would do the work it intended to do.

Dedication Prayer. The dedication prayer was made by Rev. R. D. Hamilton of Wellington street Methodist church, concluding it with the Lord's Prayer.

The Warden Heard From. Following the prayer the chairman called on Warden Kendrick to speak. The Warden expressed the pleasure it gave him to be present and on behalf of the County thanked all who had helped to make the institution possible. Commenting upon the work of Mr. Watts, Warden Kendrick said he had served a great purpose and great credit was due him and all those who had worked with him. The gift of five acres from Mr. E. L. Cockshutt and the ten acres given by the city and county was made mention of.

The giving of a land for such an institution was thought to be by the Warden the greatest thing anyone could do. In conclusion Warden Kendrick again thanked all those who had done anything towards making the institution possible.

Financial Report. The financial report which was read by Mr. A. G. Olive, treasurer, was as follows:

Grounds $22,335 22
Equipment 1,225 00
Total $23,560 22

Receipts to date $20,959 00
Shortage $2,380 84
Amount still to be received, $5,000 00
To be still provided.

Barn and cow, stable, ice house, road, levelling and grading; balance of equipment.

Mr. Frank Cockshutt Speaks. Mr. Cook, previous to calling on Mr. Frank Cockshutt, expressed regret at the absence of Mr. E. L. Cockshutt. Mr. Cockshutt thought it fortunate that his brother had been willing to dedicate the portion of the property he owned. He also thought it generous of the City of Brantford and County of Brant to furnish the land which had been added to his brother's gift. He also spoke of the usefulness of the site. He had no doubt but what the institution would carry out the good work for which it was designed. In conclusion he said he rejoiced in the success of the project.

Very Rev. Dean Brady. Very Rev. Dean Brady of St. Basil's church thought the opening of the institution marked a great day for Brantford and district. He termed the institution "A haven of health and happiness for the poor victims." The institution would have God's blessing and the unfortunate victims would give "A God Bless You." The doctor cited an instance of a wonderful cure through the agency of a sanitarium. He spoke of the situation existing ten years ago, when there were one hundred applications for one bed, and often when the diseased one was admitted to the hospital it was too late. Mention was made of the closeness of the hospital to its field of labor. The doctor spoke of the gift of Mr. Cockshutt and in his concluding remarks said "It is sweet charity."

Dr. E. C. Ashton. The last speaker was Dr. E. C. Ashton. The doctor gave a short outline of the history of the work of bringing the institution to completion, which has extended over a period of five years. A sanitarium must be located on high ground, and the soil must be light. From the moment of Mr. Cockshutt's gift, there was something definite to work on, and this gift being supplemented by other gifts, the institution was completed.

Dr. Ashton outlined the manner in which the work will be carried on. While there is only accommodation for a dozen beds, there is ample dining room accommodation, and the doctor said it was the intention to erect several small buildings on the grounds for patients in the incipient stages. On behalf of the medical men Dr. Ashton thanked those who had donated and spoke of the work of fighting the plague as a doctor finds it.

Will Improve Approach. Dr. Ashton and the chairman both spoke of the improvements to the approach and surroundings that will be made. Mr. Cook said that probably some arrangement will be made whereby the House of Refuge and the Sanitarium can use the same driveway.

Introduced Miss Cringle. Miss Cringle, the nurse-in-charge, was introduced by the chairman and she was heartily welcomed. Miss Cringle has had a wide experience, and under her direction the work will be successfully carried on.

Upon making an inspection the visitors were greatly impressed with the appearance of the building throughout and it was brought vividly before them, probably as never before, that there is a fight on—a fight against the awful plague. Wherever one chose to look, there was comfort in evidence. The snowy white coats conveyed a message which went direct to the heart.

Yesterday afternoon the building was open for inspection. To-day the great work was started.

The Officers. The officers are: President, E. L. Cockshutt; vice-president, Christopher Cook; treasurer, A. G. Olive; honorary secretary, K. V. Bunnell. Other Officers: A. E. Watts, E. L. Gould, J. T. Hewitt, Drs. Ashton and Frank, J. C. Gales, Trustees—Mayor Hartman and Warden Kendrick.

KING GEORGE WAS THE WINNER

On Board His Veteran Cutter "Britannia" the King Wins His Race.

COWES, Isle of Wight, Aug. 4.—King George for board his veteran cutter, Britannia, at the Cowes regatta to-day won the Sanata Cup, a handicap for cutters, yawls and ketches, presented by Sir Maurice Fitzgerald.

The Britannia, which had not raced at Cowes for nearly fifteen years, was at the scratch boat. The other competitors were the yawl Wendur and the ketches Julnar and Cariad.

The Royal cutter was first away on the 30 miles course and soon established a strong lead. She won easily.

The yachting opened in fine weather and with a better entry of boats than there has been for some years.

Besides King George, and Queen Mary, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and Prince Henry of Prussia brother of the German Emperor, were among the brilliant throng spending the week aloft.

The new schooner yacht Marguerite, designed by C. E. Nicholson, of Gosport, who is to build the challenger for the America's Cup, won the big schooner race, defeating Herr Krupp von Bohlen and Haldrach's Germania and the German Emperor's Meteor in the order named, over a 46-mile course. Prince Henry of Prussia was on board the Meteor.

Seven Dead From Fire

Terrible Tragedy in Quebec Home—Five Children Lost.

(Canadian Press Dispatch). QUEBEC, Aug. 4.—Seven lives were lost in a fire which early this morning destroyed the home of Joseph Paquet at St. John parish, Isle of Orleans, some fifteen miles east of Quebec. The dead are Mrs. Paquet, her five children—three girls and two boys—and an unknown woman who was staying in the house.

The fire was caused by the explosion of a lamp, the flames spreading through the frame cottage with tremendous rapidity.

Neighbors made a gallant attempt to rescue the imprisoned family, whose rescue they were helpless to attempt, but only Mrs. Paquet, who was terribly, though it is thought not fatally, burned, and one child were rescued.

Mr. Paquet is a river pilot. Messrs. J. F. Sage, G. Sage, E. Baker and G. V. Noble returned Saturday after spending a delightful two weeks at Temagami. They brought home with them some very nice bass.

The court this morning owing to some trifling cases holding the boards for the larger part of the morning, was rather late in rising, causing the magistrate and other court officials to have visions of a cold noon-day meal.

Annie Nemid had John Tubal before the Magistrate for converting a stove to his own use. A lot of foreigners were called in this case as witnesses, and the interpreter was brought into use frequently. The defendant was made to pay costs and the stove was to be returned to the previous owner for the price paid.

Harry Tom and seven other foreigners were charged with gambling on the Lord's Day and Aitch Derderian was arraigned for keeping a common gambling house. The charge against the keeper was dismissed. Harry Tom and N. Haal were fined ten dollars each and the others were discharged in the gambling case.

May Joseph had her husband up for assault. He was fined $5 and given a warning. The charge against some foreigners on Alfred Street for selling liquor unlawfully again came up. The case was dismissed.

George Rowe was before the court for loafing. He appears to be able to work but is not doing so. The case was adjourned for a week to see if Rowe would get work. Several were up on drunk charges but they were mostly first offenders.

One evening last week the Young Ladies' Triangle Club tendered one of their members, Mrs. F. W. Short (nee Miss Mildred Peckham) a shower at her home, 288 Park avenue. The evening was pleasantly spent.

The Late Everett

The funeral of Everett the little boy whose death a few days ago owing to lodging in his nose, and Mrs. John F. Lampkin, took place yesterday from the residence, 281 St. Catharines, to Brant church services, which were held, were conducted by Morrow of Cainsville.

The pall bearers were Westbrook, Fraser, Lampkin, John Duff. Many beautiful and spoke of the sympathy.

The Late James

The remains of the late son, who was fatally injured in a road accident in Welland road last, were interred in the cemetery at 3 o'clock.

The ceremony was conducted by Rev. D. T. McAlexander of Cainsville.

The deceased, who was 65 years of age, was a life member of the Presbyterian church. His trials were many and bore the same with a fortitude, and his implicit confidence in his Redeemer was one of his many characteristics.

All the members of the church (eight in number) witnessed the last sad floral offerings were beautiful, testifying to which he was held in widow and family sympathy of a host of friends in their sad bereavement.
