"One 'tortoise' would attract the concentrated fire of the artillery, but as each company or platoon forms it: own, these numerous armor-plated bodies could rush with small loss over the space already cleared as far as possible o obstacles and so have some chance of reaching the enemy's line, not as an exhausted fragment but a vigorous storming party with its numbers intact."

TEA COMING INTO GREAT FAVOR

Not in the memory of the oldest tea planter has the price of tea reached before the present figure in Colombo. There seems to be a widespread move-ment in favor of tea throughout the world, and the supply is insufficient to cope with the increased demand. Until the law of supply and demand adjusts itself higher prices for tea must BATTLES ABOUT WORDS. London Times: Our difficulties do not end with the words themselves, for a never-ending battle rages round the pronunication of them.
