Six Runs Off McTigue in the Eighth Inning

Providence, R. L., May 10.—A gale that blew with sufficient strength to make both fielding and pitching entirely out of the question had a great deal to do with "gumming" up the game here yesterday. The Grays won in the ninth by 10 to 9 on Powell's single after Toronto had tied the score at nine all in the first half. Rehg had previously made a hit that under ordinary circumstances would have been an easy out, but while Thompson was coming in on the ball the wind carried it back and he lost it.

Several similar circumstances marred the play of both teams, and at the conclusion the players of both teams were glad that it was over with. The sun also played an important part in the game, Blackburne and Brackett each giving the Grays a hit on balls that were practically in their hands but which the sun prevented them from seeing.

The game started with McQuillan, who had been used by Birmingham in the first encounter, heaving for the Maple Leafs, and Tincup for the Grays. The Leafs began operations immediately by securing one runner in the first. They threatened again in the second, but a sharp double play cut them off.

Two more were collected in the third and this feat was duplicated in the fifth. The Grays landed on McQuillan in the fifth for enough hits to score three runs, and then "Lefty" McTigue, who reported to Birmingham yesterday, was rushed to the rescue.

GRAYS WALLOP MCTIGUE. Things went along swimmingly until the eighth, when the Leafs got one in their half. Then the Grays jumped on McTigue, and after the smoke of battle had cleared six runs had been scored and the homesters were leading by a score of 9 to 6.

Then after two had gone down in the ninth Rehg shot his high fly to Thompson, which made it look like an overtime battle. But the fates were with the Grays and the ball was lost. Rehg stole second and scored when Powell singled. The score by innings: Providence . . . 00030061—10 Toronto . . . 102020013—9

SAM CRAWFORD IS BENCHED BY DETROIT

"Has Finished His Career as a Regular," Says Hughey Jennings.

Sam Crawford, hnnnoyo Philadelphia, May 10.—Sam Crawford, one of the greatest veterans of them all, has been permanently benched for the Tigers' coming, manager of the Detroit Tigers. This was the announcement made by the chiefsten of the Jungles soon after the Detroit team arrived here yesterday for its series with the Athletics.

"I have just made up my mind to shift Hellman to right field in place of Crawford and use George Burns as our regular first baseman," said Jennings. "Crawford has not been hitting to form and I am afraid he has finished his career as a regular."

This change, if made, will put Sam Crawford, one of the greatest hitters the game has produced, as well as one of its best and cleanest characters, among the list of those "who only stand and wait," with a youngster fresh from the minors taking his position. It looks like the beginning of the end of the Wahoo man. Sam had a good season in 1915, when he hit .299, fielded well and worked hard. He was not suffering in monetary sense as he has a good contract, which runs for two years more, and that President Navin will carry out to the letter.

Crawford's first professional engagement was in the Canadian League, with the Chatham club, about 18 years ago. At that time the late "Rube" Wagner was also on the Maple Leaf team. The great left-hander had jumped the Detroit team, which was then in the Western League, the American League not having been organized at the time. Even a youngster, Crawford was a slugging batsman. The husky Nebraskan has been with the Detroit club ever since he became a major leaguer, with the exception of one year with the Cincinnati Nationals.

Boston's "Speaker Day" Victory For Red Sox. Boston, May 10.—Tris Speaker was given a warm welcome by his old friends here yesterday, when the Red Sox administered a 5 to 1 defeat to Cleveland. The Shriners presented Speaker with a fez and a jeweled badge. The Boston club's gift was a massive silver loving-cup. Speaker scored Cleveland's only run on his terrific drive to the flagpole for three bases, and a single by Ruth. Score:— R. H. E. Cleveland . . . 00100000—1 3 4 Boston . . . 00101012—5 6 0 Covaleskie, Mitchell and O'Neill; Leonard and Carrigan.

GET RID OF HUMORS

Dry, moist, sealy tetter, all forms of eczema or salt rheum, pimples and other eruptions come from humors, which may be either inherited or acquired through defective digestion and assimilation. To treat these eruptions with drying medicines is dangerous. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old reliable medicine, helps the system to discharge the humors, and to improve the digestion and assimilation.

From your druggist get Hood's Sarsaparilla, which may be confidently relied upon to do its work. It purifies the blood, tones the stomach, and builds up the whole system. It goes to the roots of diseases, and its beneficial results are permanent. It sets things to rights in the system. Remember to ask for Hood's Sarsaparilla, because nothing else acts like it and nothing can take its place.

"Hitless Wonders" Slam Ball With Vengeance. New York, May 10.—Chicago played out an uphill game here yesterday, and defeated New York by a score of 5 to 4. With Chicago four runs behind in the fourth inning, Bourcier made a home run with two on bases. Jackson's triple and McMullin's single tied the score. Chicago scored the winning run in the fifth. Score:— R. H. E. Chicago . . . 00041000—5 6 3 New York . . . 30100000—4 6 1 Williams, Cicotte and Schalk; Caldwell and Alexander.

Rochester Takes Another Game. Richmond, Va., May 9.—Rochester defeated Richmond here yesterday 8 to 5, in a game featured by hard hitting and plenty of errors. The score:— R. H. E. Rochester . . . 000 202 220—8 13 4 Richmond . . . 004 000 001—5 10 4 Brown and Casey; Ross and O'Donnell.

NO MEXICAN SOLDIERS ARE NEAR COLUMBUS. Columbus, N.M., May 10.—Rumors that 3,500 Carranza soldiers were marching on Columbus and that General Pershing's rear guard had been attacked were dispelled here to-day after a reconnaissance flight made by Captain Dodd of the aero corps. Capt. Dodd flew over territory 75 miles to the south and west of Columbus. He reported seeing no Mexican soldiers and that all was quiet along the American line.

RENEWED ACTIVITY IN ALMOST EVERY DEPARTMENT OF THE EXPEDITIONARY BASE WAS APPARENT HERE TO-DAY. Men are being sent forward to the field, preparations are being made for the mobilization here of the New Mexico national guard, and supply motor truck trains for the carrying of American munition supplies, and equipment are being sent to the front. Last night a heavier guard than is customary was thrown about the military reservation. Unofficial reports from the field indicated tension among the detachments along the line of communication similar to that which seemed manifest here at military headquarters, however, it was stated that there had been no large new movement of troops in the expeditionary command.

CIVILIANS MOUTHS AIDED IN MAKING BRITISH SURRENDER

Turkish Troops Confined 6000 Non-Combatants Within Limits of Kut-El-Amara—Defenders Lived on Horse Flesh For Two Weeks—First Detailed Account of the Surrender of Townshend's Forces.

(By Edmund Candler, Correspondent of The London Times and Official Observer With British Army on the Tigris.) Headquarters of the Tigris Army (via London.) May 10.—I am able to supply the following first-hand details of the surrender of Major-General Charles F. Townshend and his garrison at Kut-el-Amara.

The last wireless communications sent out by General Townshend were despatched on the morning of April 29. Two messages were received here. The first one read: "I have destroyed the guns, most of the munitions are being destroyed and officers have gone to Khalil (the Turkish General) at Madag to say that we are ready to surrender. We must have food. We cannot hold out any longer. Khalil was told to-day of our predicament and officers have gone with a launch to bring food from the Jalut."

The Julner was the ship sent on the night of April 24 to carry supplies to the garrison at Kut. "WHITE FLAG HOISTED" The next wire begins: "I have hoisted the white flag at Kut over the fort and town. The guards will be taken over by the Turkish regiment now approaching. I shall shortly destroy the wireless. The troops will go into camp near Shamran."

On the same day the Turkish General, Khalil Bey Pasha, received the British Parliamentaires. He said he was anxious that the garrison be well rationed, and that General Townshend, for whom he expressed profound admiration, should receive every comfort after the privations he had endured so gallantly.

NO REPRISALS AGAINST CIVILIANS The ships and barges laden with food and stores which were admitted to Kut have now taken back 777 sick and wounded to be exchanged. It is expected that 700 more will follow. Khalil Pasha said that he did not contemplate any reprisals against the civilians in Kut. General Townshend is believed to be proceeding direct to Constantinople. Kut was held to the very verge of starvation. From April 18 the garrison was reduced to four ounces of flour daily with a ration of horse flesh. FEAR AMMUNITION SHORT-AGE. During the first month of the siege the garrison was only afraid of a shortage of ammunition before relief should come, which was reckoned as a certainty. As soon as we advanced from Ali-Gharbi in January the Turks relaxed their hold on Townshend, but the check at Oran made the question of supplies serious. The civilians remained in Kut, as the Turks showed that they would execute any who escaped. Thus the

BELGIANS MAKE DECIDED GAIN IN EAST AFRICA

Paris, May 10.—Belgian forces have penetrated seventy miles into German East Africa, according to an official statement issued to-day by the Belgian war department at Havre. General Tombeur, in command of the African expedition, reports that a Belgian column which crossed the German frontier near Ruhanga has advanced to the eastern shore of Lake Mohasi, the German forces retreating in the direction of Lake Victoria Nyanza, seventy miles to the east.

The Belgian colonial ministers announced last Sunday that Belgian troops had captured German positions south of Kivu Lake and were advancing south, in a direction about two miles south of Lake Mohasi. General Tombeur's report indicates the invasion of the German colony being made by two columns, one operating from the north and the second from the west.
