Obituary.

It is our sad duty this week to record the death of two well known and respected people—Mr. Shallum Pacy and Mrs. Wm. Embleton. Mr. Pacy was over 78 years of age and his death was very sudden, resulting after three days sickness. He died on Friday last and the funeral took place on Sunday morning to the Pine Grove cemetery, service being held in St. John's church. Mrs. Embleton's death was not unexpected, she having been a sufferer from consumption for nearly two years. She died at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McMillan, east of Havelock, on Tuesday morning. The funeral was held to-day. Service being held in the Presbyterian church from whence the body was interred in the Maple Grove cemetery. The friends and acquaintances of the late departed sympathise deeply with the bereaved relatives.
