There was a large congregation present, and the Rev. Mr. Munro preached an eloquent and practical sermon, especially adapted to the occasion.

The sidewalk in front of the Karley block badly needs repairing, and now that the nights are so very dark, that portion of Main street is positively dangerous. We hope either the owners of the block or the village commissioner will see that the walk is made safe at least.

We think that our town is far behind the times in not having a few lamps placed at the carners of the streets. Our sidewalks are not in the safest condition, and pedestrians, strangers especially, are liable to fall into the many pitholes caused by broken or defective sidewalks. Another plea in favor of incorporation.

The farmers are threshing out their fall grain and find the yield very large per acre.

Mrs. H. Griffin has quite recovered who would in turn admit his partners.

Every scrap of the glass was picked from the sash, in order to make ingress possible. The upper flat of the store is occupied as a dressmaking establishment by Miss Hollingsworth, who, with her sister, slept in a room on the same flat. The young ladies were disturbed by the operations of the burglars, and at once struck a light and made noise enough to frighten the robbers away. But for the timely alarm of the Misses Hollingsworth the miscreants would no doubt have made a good haul.
