Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—forhings else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shopp's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers, its effects charming, pleasingly delightful, dently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

lation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure.

If it's painful periods with women, same cause.

If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets sion it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

SHAKE IN A BOTTLE

Now is the time when the doctor gets busy, and the patent medicine manufacturers reap the harvest, unless great care is taken to dress warmly and keep the feet dry. This is the advice of an old eminent au thority, who says that Rheumatism and Kidney trouble weather is here, and also tells what to do in case of an

Get from any good prescription pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kar gon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

Just try this simple home made mixture at the first sign of Rheumatism, or if your back aches or you feel that your kidneys are not acting just right. This is said to be a splendid kidney regulator, and almost certain remedy for all forms of Rheumatism, which is caused by uric acid in the blood, which the kidneys fail to filter out. Any one can easily prepare this at home and at

WILLIAM SAYRE BANTA

Last week's Reporter contained a brief announcement of the death of W. S. Banta. In recording the sad event, the New York Journal of Commerce

"It was known that the trouble was serious, but there was reasonable hope that he would recover. but when the surgeons progressed with the operation they discovered that the entire tongue, including its base and part of the throat, was involved, so it was removed in its entirety. He died from the shock, notwithstanding the utmost efforts of the most skilled surgeons to save him....Mr Banta was a com manding figure in Metropolitan fire underwriting, and the most prominent local agent for many years. He had a most thorough knowledge of Metropol itan District risks and a wide acquain tance among the brokers. His person ality was exceedingly magnetic, and he was popular throughout the insurance business and well beloved by his associates, who will be greatly shocked by his sudden death. Mr Banta was 54 years of age. He was a bachelor. His mother, who his eighty-five years old, two brothers and a sister sur
