THE GAME WAS LOST.

AND 412 POUNDS OF BASEBALL IDOL WAS SHATTERED.

The ignominious downfall of the Lightfoot Lilies' Club mascot When in an ill advised moment they told him to slide.

"Well, why is it you never played baseball yourself?" asked a latter day fan of the very stout man sitting in the corner. "You say you were the mascot for the famous Lightfoot Lilies of Jones county, and yet, with the exception of the time that they put you in to force the winning run in the thirteenth by being hit in the stomach, you never seem to have played yourself. After such successful daring were you never asked to play again? I don't quite understand."

The stout man gazed at the speaker searchingly for a few minutes and then, apparently satisfied that the questions were asked in good faith, proceeded to unfold a long and dark shadow in his otherwise sunny life.

"Have you never heard?" he began. "Then you shall hear, and, though I think no blame should rest with me, you yourself shall judge of that. Listen. You have already referred to the contest in which I forced the winning run owing to the pitcher's inability to put the ball over the plate without striking my corporation. This, I believe, which states that but one body can occupy the same space at the same time or words to that effect. But, whatever the cause, I acquired a reputation for high class baseball second to none in Jones county and at once got a regular position on the team. My figure being my stock in trade, Captain Sluggo Burrows of the Lightfoots spared no pains in bringing me to physical perfection before the next game with the Roarers. Under a carefully selected diet of beer, butter, lard, potatoes and cod liver oil I rapidly rose from a meager 320 pounds to the magnificent figure of 412."

"For the first eight innings, of the great contest, which ultimately proved my downfall, I fully sustained my enviable reputation for artistic ball playing. Three times the bases were full, with the Roarers one run in the van. Three times I proved the Lightfoots' salvation by forcing the tying run by means of my superior figure. Three times the home routers vied with one another in futile attempts to pay me suitable homage. I was truly more than queen. And then that fatal ninth with its brilliant cup of gossamer bitterness. A hundred and twelve pounds of shattered idol!"

"In the last half of the ninth I reached first through my customary strategy. Later I succeeded in gaining third by a daring bit of base running while the Roarers' fielders were searching for 'Bull' Thompson's liner on the other side of the center field fence. Sammie Salmon and one of the Foote twins died easy deaths on the infield pop flies. There were Ringtail Roarers, 17; Lightfoot Lilies, 18; two out, Thompson and yours truly on second and third bases respectively, and the invincible 'Home Run' Hankins at the bat. All were breathless with suspense. The pitcher swung his arm back slowly, and then, 'swish, bang!' 'Home Run' Hankins never missed his aim. I struggled bravely toward the plate, and in less time than it takes to tell it Thompson was at my back pushing violently. I doubled my efforts. A moment later Hankins himself caught up and joined in the single file struggle for home and victory. 'Twas so or die, and the people were like lunatics in their wild excitement. Spurred on by their cheers, I was soon but five feet from the plate, with Thompson and Hankins still dancing at my heels. Then suddenly a voice rose clearly above the others. 'Slide, Willie, slide it rang out. Oh, fatal words!"

At this point the fat ex-mascot was overcome by emotion and stopped short. It was some minutes before he could pull himself together sufficiently to go on with his sad story.

"Well," he said at last, "I slid. Diving gracefully forward, I slid a nicely calculated slide that brought my chest directly above the rubber. But the enthusiasm this occasioned among the Lilies was short lived.

"Touch the plate, you fool! touch the plate!" 'Bull' Thompson and Hankins yelled together.

"Now, would you believe it, sir, try as I would I couldn't. My corporation had been overstrained. Lying face down, I was so high from the ground that my arms would not reach the plate.

"'Rock me!' I cried. 'Rock me!' 'Rock you?' 'Bull' Thompson roared. 'Rock you?' We'll rock you, stone you, egg you, and—touch that plate, d'ye hear?"

"'Rock me,' I pleaded, with tears in my eyes. 'You don't understand. Rock me like you would a rocking horse. Tilt me. I can't touch bottom.' 'Twas too late. While I had been explaining my predicament to those thickheaded, the Roarers' fielders found the ball, and—er—well, we lost. Afterward I told Captain Sluggo Burrows how it happened and begged for just one more chance. No use. He said that any fool with my shape ought to have sense enough to slide on his back and that—but say, honest injun, now, do you think I was in any way to blame?"

No interference. Burglar suddenly confronted by a policeman—Hello, here's a cop! Policeman—Don't let me interfere. I'm not on duty tonight. Just dropped in to see the cook.

Whom without honesty is more craft and cozenage, and therefore the reputation of honesty must be got, which cannot be got by living with a good life is a main argument.

TAKING THE REINS.

Louisville, Ky., is talked of as a grand circuit member for 1931.

Adell, 2:22, on the yearling champion, is size of standard speed. Dorothy Redmond, 2:22, at Grand Rapids, is a new trotter for Director. Connor's 2:03 1/2 is the fastest mile on record by an 11-year-old harness horse. Eight of the get of Norral, 2:14 1/2, have reduced their records this year, one entering the 2:10 list.

Alcantara has six new performers and eight that have reduced their records, two entering the 2:10 list.

Alix lowered the world's trotting record made at Terre Haute, and this honor was taken from her by The Abbot on the same track.

Miss Shaw, who reduced her record from 2:27 1/2 to 2:21 1/2 at Baltimore, is the only trotter by Direct that has won a race this season.

Over 25 horses have died lately in Broad Creek Neck, near St. Michael's, Md., from a peculiar disease said to resemble cerebro spinal meningitis.

Direct, Nutwood Wilkes and Constantine each has four new 2:20 performers, with an average speed of 2:13 13-100, 2:14 1/2, 2:15 1/2 and 2:16 1/2 respectively.

Grattan Boy, 2:08, was second to Crescens at Columbus, where the latter trotted the fastest three heats on record by a stallion. He was also second to Lord Derby at New York, where he trotted the fastest three heats on record by a gelding.

CURTAIN RAISERS.

Dorothy Morton is in vanguard. Twenty theaters will offer attraction to the people of Chicago this winter.

Leoncavallo will make an opera of "Zaza," and Emma Calve is to play the title role in it.

Stanley J. Weyman's novel "Sophia" has been dramatized by Abbey Sage Richardson.

A calf, lamb and a brood of tiny chickens are among the "properties" used in "The Dairy Farm."

Exactly 10 companies playing "Qoo Vadis" throughout the country appear on the theatrical roster to date.

At the Crown theater in London lately a piece was played called "The Worst Woman in London." It was followed by "One of the Best."

Julia Arthur is said to have in preparation a new version of "Hamlet" entirely different from that interpreted by Mme. Sarah Bernhardt.

Truly Shattuck is the name of an American actress. Miss Shattuck's stage name is a very natural abbreviation of her true name, which is Etrelia.

Manager Keith brought a trolley party all the way from Boston to New York and entertained them at his New York theater recently.

Sunday theaters prevail in all of the cities west of and including Cincinnati. Regular performances of plays are given in these cities, and it is customary to open a week's engagement with a Sunday matinee.

American plays are apparently going to be the features of the New York season. Kirke La Shelle's "Arizona," Jacob Litt's "Caleb West" and James A. Hervey's "Sag Harbor" are all pictorial of native folk, native costumes and native scenes.

THE WRITERS.

Hall Caine, the novelist, is at work on a volume of memoirs chiefly devoted to his intimate friendship with the Rossettis.

A. W. Pinero, England's most famous contemporary playwright, says that he never begins with a plot, but expects the characters to tell him the story.

Gerhart Hauptmann, the German dramatist, does not have to depend on his pen for a living. His work pays him very well, but he inherited one fortune, and his wife brought him another. Most of his investments are in real estate.

Conan Doyle has an original preference in the matter of critics. "I like a boy critic," he says. "The boy who will start to read a story and then chuck it down and say 'Rot!' or who will read a book straight through and say 'Ripping!' that's the person I want to criticize my work."

IN THE SICKROOM.

Put your pity into your nursing as well as into your prayers.

Smooth off with a fine file the rough end of the glass driving the tumbler or glasses. Little ones are far more acceptable.

Use finest old linen, if linen at all, for bathing the mouth and lips. Nothing is so grateful.

Make the most of the privilege of being near the suffering mortal who longs for your presence.

Raise the invalid's head by putting your hand under the upper pillow and, with as much firmness as possible, lifting it.

POLITICAL QUIPS.

The independent voter seldom casts his ballot for the independent candidate.—Savannah News.

With 12 tickets in the presidential field there should be a lively race for tail end honors.—Philadelphia North American.

Cumberland county, Me., elected a Baptist minister as sheriff. If there are any criminals there, he will soak them.—Minneapolis Times.

Because a great man sometimes bolts his party ticket it does not follow that everybody who bolts his party ticket is a great man.

RAILWAY TIES.

Of the nine fastest trains of the world, declares the Baltimore Sun, eight run between Camden and Atlantic City.

The Jungfrau railway has been abandoned because the cost turned out to be heavier than the engineers expected.

A Chicago firm of civil engineers has petitioned the Chilean congress for permission to build and operate an electric railway on the Cordillera from Juncal to Los Chiles, connecting Chile and the Argentine Republic.

What Is It?

A man who has been running a race with steam and electricity for years, finds himself suddenly stopped. It seems as if a cold hand clutched his heart. His brain whirls; he can hardly see. "What is it?" he asks himself as the attack passes.

If his question meets a right answer, he'll be told that his seizure is a warning to pay more attention to his stomach, which is already damaged by irregular meals and rich foods.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It eliminates from the blood disease breeding poisons. It makes the blood rich and pure, and furnishes a foundation for sound, physical health.

"About ten years ago I began to have trouble with my stomach," writes Mr. Wm. Connolly, of 313 Walnut Street, Lorain, Ohio. "It got so bad I had to lay off quite often—two and three days in a week. I have been treated by the best doctors in this city, but got no help. Some said I had cancer of the stomach, others stomach, others dyspepsia. Then I wrote to you for advice. You advised the use of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and I have taken as directed. I commenced to get better from the start, and have not lost a day this summer on account of my stomach. I feel tip-top, and better than I have for ten years."

Keep the bowels healthy by using Dr. Pierce's Peppermint. They don't gripe.

THE GLASS OF FASHION.

Pink in all the prettiest shades, from the palest to a deep rose tint, is a popular color for evening gowns.

Blouses of white silk mull, with the fine tucks stitched in with gold thread, are worn with the coat and skirt tailor gowns.

Violets are still the most popular flowers worn. They are tied with gold ribbon, the ends finished with violet silk tassels.

A black broadcloth gown trimmed with ermine or frogs of black and white braid is one of the strikingly novel costumes.

White broadcloth is one of the popular materials for bridesmaids' gowns, which are made with a vest of yellow silk embroidered with gold.

Colored veils dotted with chenille in a vermicelli pattern are one of the winter's fancies, and brown to match the hair, worn with a brown gown, is especially chic.

Louis XV jackets cut out in turtlet shape all around the waist, the squares falling below the belt in basque effect, are one of the latest modes. This sort of coat has an embroidered waistcoat.

Medallions of velvet embroidered in gold and variously distributed on a costume are one of the favored modes of decoration. Medallions of plaided moose, sealine and fine lace are also much employed and sometimes framed in irregular lines, which add very much to the effect.

Blobs—What did they do with that fellow who was arrested for impersonating a policeman.

Blobs—Sent him to an insane asylum. The judge said that any man who wanted to look like a policeman must be crazy.
