J. C. Pritchard, Grand Trunk agent, has received a circular letter from Division Freight Agent McDonald, of Hamilton, respecting marking and addressing of freight packages.

The Grand Trunk is insisting upon each package or piece of less than carload freight, and also carload freight being plainly marked with the name and address of consignee, so as to insure prompt delivery even if separated from the waybill. Old marks on freight boxes must be removed or effaced. Tags should not be used when the nature of the goods will permit of the address being stencilled on packages or pieces. The waybill and bill of lading for carload and less than carload shipments must show the number of packages or pieces.
