The big super-production "Over the Hill", on Wednesday evening was attended by a large crowd of most appreciative patrons. The picture, although greatly advertised, fully measured up to all that its sponsors claimed for it. The only fault which could possibly be found with it, was the superlatively human note which ran all through the piece, making it get just a little too far under the skin. A long bit of touching drama was enacted in the life of Mary Carr the mother, between the prologue of prologue of happy childhood and school days, and her happy return from the poor house. The picture was most heartily received and nothing but favorable comment was passed upon it. On Saturday evening "The Grim Comedian", proved a pretty story most cleverly told, kept one closely interested all through and finished up by revealing the story letters evidently most unexpectedly. Pictures for this week get due notice in an advertisement at the bottom of this page.

Rev. Mr. Fletcher, a "hard orator", occupied the United Baptist pulpit on Sunday morning. Besides being a gifted speaker, Mr. Fletcher is a clever musician and his clever clarinet playing on Sunday morning lent unusual and attractive attention to the service. Rev. C. Russel Canham preached his farewell sermon at St. James' Episcopal church on Sunday evening to a large congregation. In addition to a most interesting discourse, Mr. Canham spoke feelingly of his appreciation of the kind words and deeds that had been tendered him during his stay of eighteen months. Mr. Canham will leave the last of the month for his new parish. Rev. Hugh Miller purchased a new organ last week.

S. H. Cormier is somewhat improved at the time of writing.

Rex Beckwith has purchased a vacant building belonging to Mrs. Hoyt and is preparing to move it up on his own lot for renovation.

Mrs. Robert Riley of Woodstock spent Monday here with her husband. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gamble and family of South Devon have moved to Centreville and are living in the Agnew house.

Harold White of Aroostook Jct. visited his mother, Mrs. Alice White on Sunday.

Leo White in one of his trapping escapades on Monday, found a coon (not a colored gentleman) in one of his traps. After sundry difficulties he succeeded in getting a collar round its neck and now has it on leash, making a very pretty pet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stevens were in Woodstock on Sunday.

G. A. Jamieson bought last week a new McLaughlin Four from E. E. Cliff.

E. J. Aney of Montreal was here on Wednesday.

W. S. Skillen of Woodstock was a caller in town on Monday.

C. J. Mersereau of Chatham and J. Price of Canterbury, of the Great West Life were in town last week soliciting business.

Mrs. Wilmet Hunter and Miss Myrtle Carle of East Florenceville were callers in town on Monday.

G. P. Burpee and Newman Black made a very liberal compromise in their settlement with C. P. R. for damages incident to a collision at a crossing at Florenceville in July last.

On October 29, Rev. H. R. Bell will preach in Centreville at 11 a.m. and at 7.30 in the evening. Carvel at 3 p.m. Special music at evening service. All are invited.

Kenna, Mrs. Tibbitts will also visit friends in St. John before returning home.

Paul Wright has purchased the tenement house recently occupied by Mrs. Alexander Walker and owned by J. Warren James. Mr. Wright and family will take possession at an early date.

The meetings of the Deacons of Trinity church was held in Andover during the past week. The meetings were largely attended the visiting brethren being Rev. Augustus Forde, Fort Fairfield, Rev. L. A. Forster, ex-alumnus of Salmonhurst, Rev. H. P. Rigby of Woodstock, Rev. N. Franchette of Edmundston, Rev. H. Bennett of Richmond, Rev. W. P. Haigh of Hartland and Rev. Mr. Martin of Canterbury. Rev. Mr. Forde was the speaker Tuesday evening and Rev. Mr. Bennett Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Waite who have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Waite left Thursday for their home in Havana, Cuba. Their many friends wish them a pleasant trip.

Mrs. Forster of Salmonhurst and Mrs. Franchette of Edmundston were among the visitors to attend the deacons' meetings in Trinity church last Tuesday and Wednesday.

The sincere sympathy of all are extended to J. Warren James and family in their great bereavement. Carl Delano who recently underwent surgical treatment for throat trouble in Houston returned to Andover Thursday.

Mrs. E. B. Murphy spent Thursday at Upper Kent the guest of Mrs. Damaris Squires. John Curry spent Sunday at his home in Andover.

LET THIS SOAK IN

Now and then we run across a citizen who can't see wherein a liberal use of printer's ink will bring him more business. He is usually also satisfied to keep just about two jumps ahead of the bankruptcy referee. As stubborn as he always is in his argument we still believe he will be interested in a statement made last week by G. T. Schaeffer, of the great department store of Marshall Field & Co., Chicago. Schaeffer said:

"Good advertising is printed sales."

It costs money—but figured per cent it is dirt cheap. Advertising should not be used as a medium—it should be used as a food. It will not necessarily cure a sick business. It will not permanently offset poor merchandise or poor service. It will not build confidence and prestige unless it is founded on dependability in your goods and integrity in your business methods. Advertising is the printed representative of your business; the projected personality of your business. It should represent you just as efficiently as a star salesman. It should tell the story of your merchandise accurately and enthusiastically.

"We are strong believers in advertising, and the bulk of it goes into newspapers. We have tried every kind of honest advertising—and now or yet have found anything to equal newspaper advertising."

FOR SALE

Purebred Cattle, Swine and Sheep

Shorthorn females, all ages; also bull calves. Improved Berkshire pigs, both sexes, ready for shipment. Oxford Down and Hampshire Rams and Rams Lambs, all stock registered in Live Stock Records in Ottawa. Here is an opportunity for farmers to improve their live stock at small cost. Good stock will pay well for feed consumed; scrub stock will lose money every time. Good stock is scarce; scrub stock is a drug on the market. It does not pay you to raise it and it does not pay the dealer or butcher to handle it. We will be glad to explain to any farmer that has never used a purebred ram how he can get one with little or no cost. Write us or phone Farmers' 4-21.
