DEATH DUE TO ACCIDENT.

Finding of the Jury in John Duncan's Case.

Funeral of Horatio Palmer, An Old Dundas Resident.

Conservatives Had Celebration in Park Last Night.

Dundas, June 13.—The adjourned inquest on the remains of John Duncan, killed near the G. T. R. station on Tuesday night last, was concluded before Coroner Rennie at the town hall yesterday. The first witness called was John Watson, who said he had been with deceased all day. They went to the G. T. R. station about 10 o'clock p. m., Duncan's purpose being to board a freight train and go to Galt. Enquiring from Night Operator Burr when a freight would be due, they were advised by him to go home and not make an attempt to board a train. They then proceeded eastward down the track looking for a flat going west. When a short distance from the station Duncan was struck in the back by a pilot engine and tender going east, and run over and killed. Witness returned to the station and told the operator of what had occurred, and then proceeded to notify Dr. Ryckert and Chief Twiss.

Operator Burr stated that Duncan and Watson left his office after he had advised them to go home, and he thought they were going home. In a short time Watson returned and told him Duncan was killed by the pilot going east. The pilot, which had been as far as Copetown with a train was returning, going very slowly, about six miles an hour. The accident happened 400 or 500 yards east of the station. The pilot crossed a freight train where the accident happened. He had the body removed from the track and notified Chief Twiss.

John E. Johnston, engineer of pilot 37, said he was backing down from Copetown with two white lights on the rear of tender. Did not know that an accident had happened until he reached Hamilton, when he was notified that his engine was to be examined as it was thought it had caused the accident.

With the examiner and found blood on tender wheels, was running slowly on way down as freight was ahead. The fireman on the pilot corroborated the engineer's evidence. Drs. Lauchland and Ryckert, who made the post mortem examination, gave evidence showing that the body and head were terribly crushed and mutilated.

After a few remarks by the coroner the jury was left to give a verdict, which took only a short time. The verdict was that deceased met his death accidentally by being run over by G. T. R. pilot engine No. 574.

One of the town's most sturdy and best known residents, Horatio Palmer, was laid to rest at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Deceased was born at Edgerton, near Maidstone, Kent County, England, in 1825. When two years of age he came to New York with his parents, where he lived for ten years, his parents dying in the meantime. He then came to Dundas, where he lived for many years.

He had lived over fifty years. On May 1st, 1841, he came to Dundas, where he has ever since lived. On coming to Dundas he apprenticed himself to the late James Freed, father of A. T. Freed, of Hamilton, to learn the trade of a bricklayer and mason. The Freed family and Palmer's family lived in each other in England and came to America at the same time. His first work at his trade was on the part first built of the residence of Robert McKeechie, the first work done by him after starting for himself.

At noon the mounted non-commissioned officers assembled at the Armory, and at 1 p. m. the privates were on their way. The corps left on the 2.05 train via G. T. R., with the expectation of having one of the best outings. The work for this corps will be naturally be heavy, but the members expect to have a good time as well. The corps took 20 horses to camp.

The parade state of the Army Medical Corps showed 60 strong last evening, in preparation for its work at Niagara Camp this year. THE BEST WAY.

To Preserve Suet—If suet be melted down in the oven and put into jars it will keep for any length of time, and is much better to chop up if done in this way. Puddings will keep better if made with suet that has been melted in the oven.

To keep cheese—Saturate a cloth with vinegar, wring it out, and place over the cheese. By doing this it will be found that any sort of cheese will keep as fresh and free from mould as when first cut, and for any length of time.

To Prevent Chapped Hands—Take common starch, and grind it with a knife until it is reduced to the finest powder. After washing the hands, wipe them, and while they are still damp rub a little of the starch all over them. The effect is most soothing.

To Prepare New Boots—If the following method is adopted boots will last twice as long and also resist the damp. Procure a pennyworth of boiled linseed oil, pour it on to a large flat dish or tin, and allow the boots to stand in it for about twelve hours, or until the soles are well soaked. This does not apply to brown boots.
