Signal.

GODERICH, Oct. 14, 1874

Mr. Blake at Aurora.

Mr. Blake's brilliant speech at Aurora has given occasion for a remarkable unity of feeling amongst the members of all parties—"Canada First" is pleased to accept him as one of their disciples; the conservative executive a hornpipe over the approaching dismemberment of the Reform party, whilst the latter rejoices that it has so liberal and intelligent an opponent. Of course the ecstacy of the conservative party is premature; but they have no occasion to feel disappointed. By Saturday morning they were all provided for, and found good situations.

To Bendicts.—A strong plea in favor of marriage is made out in the report of the jail statistics for the past year, by the disparity in the numbers of married and unmarried prisoners. Young man, if you wish to keep out of jail, get married!

Thanksgiving Service.—There will be devine service in St. George's church on Thursday the 15th inst., at 11 a. m., the time appointed by the House of Bishops at the late Provincial Synod to be observed as a day of thanksgiving for the late abundant harvest.

Thanks.—We are indebted to Mr. Longworth for a file of the Dublin Evening Mail, of 1833. It is highly interesting to read the journals of the days of Dan. O'Connel, the Patriot war, the French Mexican difficulty and the stirring events of those days.

The Allsebastians.—This well known troup appeared to a bumper house on Friday evening last, and entered successfully and enjoyably to the audience. The "music of the bells" was really exquisite, and those who were present confess that they enjoyed a rare treat.

Fortunate.—A Canuy Scot met a gust of wind in turning the corner of the Signal office on Saturday, and was deposited in a sitting posture in the centre of a pool of water. Picking himself up, he felt himself behind to find out the extent of the damage, looking somewhat lugubrious, and exclaimed after a short search, "Thank Providence, it's nae my new breeks!"

Notice.—Only one person can pass through the gateways leading to the Court house, at a time. A newly married couple attempted this the other day, but after repeated trials it was found impossible. These gateways have a scrupulous regard for individuality, and they defy the law that makes two beings "twain." Who will remonstrate.

A Fine Waggon.—On Monday we were shown a waggon made by Mr. Passmore, of this place, which had been sold to Mr. Geo. Currell of Ashfield, for $100. It had been built for the provincial exhibition, but was too late to compete, and it would doubtless have taken a prize. The vehicle was well made, staunch and showed superior workmanship, and competent judges pronounced it a beautiful and perfect piece of work. It had a patent axle.

Y. M. C. A. Meetings.—We desire to call the attention of the public to the various meetings held in the rooms over the Post office of the Young Men's Christian Association of our town. On Thursday evg. of each week a bible class is held under the leadership of Mr. Mair, Supt. of Knox Church Sabbath Commencing at 7.30, for the study of the International series of Sabbath School Lessons. On Saturday evg. of each week, at 8 o'clock, and Sabbath morning at 9 o'clock, social religious meeting. On Friday evg. next (Oct. 16th,) the monthly business meeting will be held. After hearing reports from the several standing committees of work for last month a programme of readings & music will be presented to the audience. It is the desire of the Y. M. C. A. to furnish our townspeople during the coming fall and winter months, with free literary entertainments, readings, addresses, music, etc., fortnightly, the first of this series of meetings being held as above next Friday evg. at 7.30 o'clock. As the membership of the Y. M. C. A. is composed of Christians of ALL denominations, and its objects are to UNITE on one common platform (One in Christ) the hands and hearts of Christian workers from every sect, for the great objects of benefitting, not so much the Y. M. C. A. members themselves, as outsiders, any and all but more particularly young men with whom they may come in contact. We submit that the Association in our own town is worthy and entitled to receive the earnest sympathy and hearty support of every Christian old and young male and female. A cordial welcome is extended to all to attend the meetings, and make use of the Y. M. C. A. free reading room which is opened daily. To any who may be in doubt or ignorance of the Y. M. C. A. platform or work, we say come out to the Friday evening meeting. Hear what has been and is likely to be done, let us see our Y. M. C. A. nobly supported in their work of faith and labour of love.

LOCAL NEWS.

Fire.—A couple of raccoons were captured in a poplar tree on Victoria Street last week, after a high-flying hunt in which a goodly number participated. The animals, both of which were large ones, are supposed to have been driven from their haunts by the bush fires, and wandered into town in the night.

Dramatic Readings.—Mr. Marlton's readings on last Wednesday and Thursday evenings were but poorly attended. Mr. M's reading is very fine, and his rendering of Hamlets soliloquy, the last scene in Richard III, and conversation between Mercutio and Romeo were given with proper feeling and judgment. Should Mr. Marlton again appear before a Goderich audience he will meet a more enthusiastic reception.

Accident at Smith's Hill.—Last Wednesday afternoon, during the progress of the fair at Smith's Hill, Mr. Hugh Chisholm, of Colborne, his wife and two children were driving in a buggy, the horse started and ran away. It ran but a short distance, turning off the road and upsetting the buggy and throwing the occupants violently to the ground. Mr. C. held on to the reins and was dragged some distance before the horse stopped, but beyond a few painful bruises was not badly hurt. Mrs. Chisholm was pretty severely hurt internally, although she is doing well and in no danger. The children escaped injury.

The concert given by the celebrated Scotch vocalist, Miss Jeanie Watson and Mr. Hardy, in the Town Hall, on the evening of Friday the 9th, was a complete success. We would advise the lovers of Scotch song to attend these concerts and we can assure them they will receive a treat.

On Saturday evening, 10th inst., a row took place at the Toronto House, near the station. Several men and boys burst in the sitting room door and a row ensued in the midst of which a young man of the name of Thos. Garrity got badly beaten, having been kicked severely about the head and face. It seems that Garrity had a dispute with some party during the day which wasn't considered fully "settled," and the row in the evening was considered "settlement in full," of "old scores."

Our town can boast of as muddy streets as are to be found in the Dominion. It is not supposed that the late proclamation establishing Seaforth into a town has anything at all to do with it.

Typhoid fever is subsiding, there being only about half a dozen cases in town.

NAVIGATION.

Tuesday morning, Oct. 13.

For the past week the weather has been unfavorable for the shipping interests, and no arrivals are reported for the last two days, on account of the gales. Three shiploads of lumber arrived on the 8th, consigned to the firm of Secord, Gouzons & Co., who have extensive mills in Midland. Very little salt has been shipped during the week, but large sales have been made lately, to be shipped by water.

Freights have continued about the same, and charters are reported at the principal ports from 3½ to 4½ cents per bushel for grain, 5 cents per bbl. for salt, and one is reported at 33 per cord for stone.

Social Entertainment.—On the evening of the 27th of August, Dr. Rosebrugh, of Toronto entertained the delegates from the American Medical Association, to the Canadian Association which lately met at the Falls, viz., Dr. Jenks, of Detroit, and Dr. Thompson, of Lansing, Mich., at West Lodge, Toronto. He also invited several of his medical friends in the city and country. A very pleasant meeting was the result. The supper was got up in good style, and the company enjoyed themselves heartily. After supper the host publicly introduced Dr. Jenks to the company, and asked him to make some remarks, in an informal way, on some subject connected with his specialty, viz., Diseases of Women. Dr. Jenks very kindly complied with his request, and exhibited a new form of vaginal speculum explained its mechanism, and gave his views on the treatment of certain forms of uterine disease. He replied to several questions put to him by some of those present, in all of which he showed him self familiar with the subject, and gave some useful hints in reference to the treatment of uterine diseases generally. The evening was spent very pleasantly and profitably. The friends of Dr. Rosebrugh will be glad to know that he has entirely recovered from his severe illness (typhoid fever), and is able to resume his professional duties.

Colborne Township Show.

The annual fall show of the Colborne Township Agricultural Society was held at Smith's Hills on Wednesday last, the 7th inst. This society is comparatively young, having now completed its third year we believe, and its success has been quite remarkable, the last instance of its progress speaking volumes of the importance of this show in the events of each fall. The number of entries footed up the large figure of 900, and the attendance of visitors was large, although not so numerous as a greater accommodation for man and best would warrant. Smith's Hill is favourably situated for exhibition purposes being the centre of a fine agricultural district, and representing as it does a wealthy and well advanced class of farmers, its fairs seem destined to take the lead. Considered in the general view it was the best we have yet seen, although the number of thorough-bred cattle was behind other places. In the cutside department the collection was good, particularly in horses. In this class the entries were numerous and the quality of the stock excellent, comprising general purpose horses and heavy draughts. Mr. Jas. McDonagh showed his magnificent brood mare—a large, spirited animal of symetrical proportions and great bone and action the former class, and Mr. J. J. Fisher showed his fine mare in the second class, both of which animals have obtained a great number of prizes. Mr. J. J. Fisher also exhibited a beautiful span of general purpose horses, in which class the show was large and good. Thorough-bred cattle were represented by two heifers shown by Mr. Washington and a well proportioned bull calf, the property of Mr. Jas. Brown, East Wawanosh. In grades the quality of the stock was up to the mark, and the animals shown were heavy and well fed. The entries in sheep were quite considerable, although the quality was not so admirable as the numerical strength. Messrs. Washington, Potter, Reed and McDonagh showed several fine animals, however. Mr. R. Taylor exhibited a very large boar which took first prize; and the other boasts shown in the class of pigs were all remarkably heavy. Ducks seemed to comprise the majority of the entries in poultry, in which class the show was not large. In the implement department the majority of the entries were made by the large manufacturing companies.—B. Bell & Son, St. George; Thomson & Williams, Mitchell and a Dundas firm. Mr. D. K. Strachan, of Goderich, showed a fine set of iron harrows, as did also Mr. Wm. Brown, of Smith's Hill. Mr. Job Brown was the only exhibitor of wooden harrows. Knox & Rothwell showed their prize top buggy and a very handsome phaeton; and Mr. Job Brown exhibited two substantial, well-made farm waggons and light waggon; Mr. James Whenham, also having a waggon on the ground. Mr. John Brundson showed a double buggy, double cutter, top buggy and open buggy.

The inside department was replete with vegetable monstrosities, specimens of perfection in fruit culture, dairy produce, ladies' work, etc., etc. Wheat was well represented, there being 39 entries—the largest yet—and the bags of Treadwell and Fife shown by Mr. P. Carrol were of excellent quality. Oats, peas and barley were very good in quality. There were 32 entries of butter, and in table butter particularly the quality was good. Bee culture is a pet pursuit in Colborne judging from the number of entries in honey—8 in all, 7 in the comb and one specimen of strained honey. In bread there were 10 entries. Vegetables, particularly beets and turnips, were remarkably well grown and large, and the potatoes were equal to any that have come under our notice so far, with the exception of the Goderich Horticultural Show. The entries in this class, through the list of carrots, onions, tomatoes, cabbages and corn were numerous. In the class of fruit the show was very good, the collections of fall and winter apples being large and superior. Mr. Wm. Hayden and A. M. Ross showed very fine collections of grapes, the latter's collection in particular being very rich and comprising 18 varieties. Peaches were fine flavored and large, pears well grown and of the late varieties, and plums and crab apples were good but not numerous. The ladies' department was full to repletion, and the endless list of feminine accomplishments were represented in the most skilful manner. Miss Stanley of Goderich, was very successful in the sweepstakes for workmanship, was really beautiful, size piece of bead work coming in as to be the glimmer of gilt that was skilful and intricate. Mrs. Louis Bell exhibited a large shell from of great beauty, and Miss S. Payne and Mrs. A. Gouzons were very pretty and conscientious. Apiece of fall bulbs was shown by Mrs. R. Graham attracted much admiration, as did also the feather and flowers by Mrs. Payne and Mrs. Howell respectively. The patched quilt by Miss Jamieson was very pretty, and Mrs. J. Fisher's rag mat was really fine. There were many other articles which we would like to mention, but our space fails us, and we will leave to the prize list for less elaborate detail.

COMMUNICATIONS.

To the Editor of the Huron Signal.

Sir,—A few days ago I sent a letter to Mr. Ure, one of the editors of the Globe. This was marked "private" on inside and outside. In this letter I stated that I considered myself unjustly and harshly treated, and requested an explanation of the signatures to the correspondents who attacked me in the Globe of the 2nd inst., under the signatures of "Huron," "Senator," and "Visitor." This private letter remains unanswered, and this paper contains an editorial on the subject of an editorial made the 2nd inst. I have no desire to occupy the columns of the Globe in reference to the matter, and knowing that the latter will not reach all who should see it except through the local papers, I have therefore respectfully to request that you will allow me space in your valuable journal not only for this letter but that addressed to the Globe.

I have the honor to be, sir,
Your obedient servant,
J. R. Miller.

Goderich, Oct. 9th, 1874.

To the Editor of the Globe.

Sir,—Quite unexpectedly I find myself the subject of a Globe editorial. In the interests of justice and fair-play I respectfully request the benefit of your columns not only to assure you but at the same time reply to the charges made by your correspondents, who have not the courage to write over their own names, but who, assassin like, stab a man in the dark and give him no chance for a fair fight.

Permit me to state that I could have answered these traducers long ago but hesitated to do so for two reasons. First, a straightforward and emphatic denial was sent you by Mr. R.
