The Parade Grounds.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—Will you pardon me for again requesting the courtesy of your esteemed journal for another word respecting the Parade Ground. My reason for doing so is a desire to thank Mr. Bennett for the explanation of his attitude on that subject as given in the House of Assembly yesterday afternoon. Possibly so far as Mr. Bennett's intention is involved I may have missed the point. My explanation is that the old Municipal Council is understood to have already passed over the Parade Ground to the Athletic Association for sports, and my fear was that opposition to the use of the ground for educational purposes meant confirmation of that action. I am glad that Mr. Bennett does not approve of this, but rather desires that the space be utilized as recreation grounds for city children. Now this is entirely in harmony with my own desire and all the more so as this use of the Parade Ground does as this use of the Parade Ground does not seem to me to conflict in any essential way with its use for educa-tional purposes. The two may be very effectively combined. Take for instance Queen's Park in Toronto. That park is open to the public and largely patronized and the fact that it contains extensive educational buildings in no way interferes with its use for recreation purposes. And similar instances could be multiplied many times over. Why not then have the parade ground beautified for the double purpose? Let the elevation be convent with educational buildings. crowned with educational buildings and other parts be suitably laid out as a place of rest for weary mothers and games for romping children.

Again thanking you for space.

Faithfully yours,

L. CURTIS.

Disabled Ship Making Slow Progress

No further reports have been received from either the liner Wihifredian or the freighter Oxonian since yesterday at 2 p.m., when Capt. Parry of the Oxonian reported that S.W. gale with heavy sea was raging, with the ship labouring and straining heavily and making slow progress. It is expected the ships will reach here to acrow evening or Monday forencon. The disabled freighter was formerly the S.S. Planmore. The S.S. Winifredian is a passenger and freight liner and owned by the Levland Line Co. She was built at Belfast in 1899 by Messrs. Harland and Wolff and is a four mast steel screw ship of 10,428 tons gross, 6,812 net. She is splendidly fitted and
