Women Robbers in Berlin

Berlin, July 30.—Hold-up women have appeared in Berlin. They operate in the suburbs, usually after midnight, and all the victims so far have been men. The women are big and strong and instead of carrying revolvers they use hammers or clubs.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING N.A.A.A. Championship Meet. Postponed Until September 10th—Additional Prizes Offered.

The adjourned meeting of the Newfoundland Amateur Athletic Association took place on Saturday night when further matters in connection with the annual championship sports meet were discussed. Mr. J. P. Crotty presided, in the absence of the President, before a goodly attendance of members. After the minutes of the previous meeting had been read, a discussion arose over the date fixed for the annual event at a previous meeting. Several of those present were of the opinion that contestants desirous of competing, particularly to those who wanted to take part in the Telegram Road Race, had very little time left at their disposal for training, and others agreed that if the sports were deferred to the following Wednesday, the warships of the Special Service Squadron of the British Navy, then in our waters, it would tend to make the day all the more successful. Upwards of 3,000 men comprise the crews and with arrangements made for the running of a special train from Topsail to the city, it would be an interesting attraction for some of the men. Only bona fide Newfoundlanders are eligible to compete in the Championships. This rule debar the Navy from competing with the locals. It was then suggested to include a few extra events on the programme being made to get in touch with the Commander of the monster Hood with this in view, and the matter was allowed to stand over until next meeting night. The Committee then decided unanimously to extend the date from the 3rd to the 10th of September, and entries to close Sept. 6th, instead of Aug. 30th. Due to the date decided upon falling on the last holiday of the season, the Secretary was instructed to communicate with the Importers' Association, asking if they would be kind enough to transfer the holiday to the next day, if the weather should be unfavorable. The Javelin and Discus throw will be added at the end of the programme. These events will not include in the Club Competition for the Hayward Trophy. Besides handsome gold medals for first place honors, it was agreed to award silver and bronze medals of similar design for second and third places. In all events four or more competitors must compete to make the third award. With the additional prizes offered it was felt that a much longer list of competitors would be available and help to make competition all the more keener. Messrs. J. T. Tobin, C. Hall and C. J. Ellis, timekeepers, with S. P. Cullen as starter, were the officials appointed for the Highland Games. The matter of sending athletes to Halifax this year also came up for discussion. The Maritime Championship takes place in Halifax on Sept. 6th, and due to the fact that our sports are being conducted a little later this year, it was found impossible to single out the best competitors, until they had been seen in real championship action. With the Halifax Herald Road Race taking place in November, it would not be surprising that two or more of our local speedsters will be sent. However, this matter will be taken up wholeheartedly at a later meeting.

Mr. J. J. Bates was welcomed at this meeting and was placed on the membership list by proclamation. Mr. Bates is a keen follower of games both in this city and Canada and his services will be greatly appreciated. After disposing of a few minor matters rest was taken until Friday next, when it is hoped that a full committee will be present. Entries are now being received at the office of Mr. J. A. MacKenzie, Law Chambers.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Aug. 13.—Young Bob Fitzsimmons, son of the former world's heavyweight champion defeated Soldier King, local light heavyweight, in a 10-round open air bout here last night. The Grand Rapids boxer, although badly beaten in almost every round, stayed the limit, but was on the verge of a knockout several times.

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn., Aug. 19.—"Young" Stribling, the Georgia school-boy boxer, scored a technical knockout over Jack Stone, New York light-heavyweight, in the fourth round of a scheduled eight round bout here last night, after punching his opponent almost at will. The Referee stopped the fight with Stone helpless against the ropes under a rain of blows from the Georgia "flash." During the first three rounds Stribling literally used his opponent for a punching bag, jamming rights and lefts to all part of his opponent's anatomy, while his own far foot work kept him out of reach of Stone's rushes.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 19.—Carl Tremaine, local bantamweight, and Buddy Taylor, Terre Haute, Ind., have been matched to box 10 rounds here on the night of Aug. 23.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Aug. 19.—Law Tandler, Philadelphia lightweight, earned a newspaper decision over K. O. Mars, Cincinnati, in a 10-round boxing bout here last night. Mars was knocked down in the fourth round and was being counted out when the bell saved him.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Kid Sullivan, of Brooklyn, still is junior lightweight champion of the United States to-day as the result of the successful defence of his title in a 15-round bout with Vincent (Pepper) Martin, of Brooklyn, at the Queensboro A.C. in Long Island City. Sullivan won on points.

Pear's Attack on Women in Politics

LONDON, Aug. 6 (A.P.)—Lord Banbury, who as Sir Frederick Banbury, was among the most consistent diehards who ever sat in the House of Commons, has lost none of his conservatism since he shifted to the House of Lords.

His Lordship stirred up a hornet's nest by declaring, in opposition to Lord Astor's bill to permit peeresses in their own right to sit in the House of Lords, that the contemplated action would lower the dignity of the upper chamber. The right which the bill would confer would affect only about a dozen peeresses, but it has always elicited strenuous opposition because of its supposed revolutionary tendency.

Did their lordships propose, Lord Banbury asked, that the body which for centuries had been a model of a parliamentary house should "lose dignity in order to secure efficiency by admitting women?"

But what has made women of England—in politics and out of politics—mad as March hares was Lord Banbury's accusation that women made an unfair exercise of the privilege of sex in their participation in politics. "Where are we going to stop if we begin this way?" queried Lord Banbury. "Men and women are different and you cannot prevent a woman from exercising in Parliament the privilege of her sex which she had been accustomed to exercise. Women exercise their fascination unwittingly, and men could not treat them as equals in Parliament."

"All nonsense," said Dorothy Jewson, Labor Member of Parliament from Norwich. "Lord Banbury has opposed all progressive measures all his life."

"The noble Lord's speech is most ungallant and had it come from any one else it might have been taken seriously," said Lady Terrington, another woman M.P.

"There has been no loss of dignity since women came into the House of Commons," said Mrs. Wintingham, another woman member.

Lady Astor declined to make any comment on Lord Banbury's outburst. When he was in the House of Commons Lord Banbury antagonized virtually every reform measure which Lady Astor put forward and the parliamentary tilt between the venerable diehard and the vivacious American woman enlivened many sessions of the House of Commons. But they are the best of friends outside of politics, and Lady Astor asked to be excused from engaging in a controversy with an old friend.
