

Falling 175 Feet Down the Shaft of a Mine and Still Alive and Well.

Christmas Eve at the Julian Mines furnished one of the most remarkable incidents in all the annals of curious casualties. Charles Fox is one of the San Diego Lead. Their shaft is sunk to the depth of 175 feet. On the afternoon of the 24th of December he took his place in the bucket to go down to the lower level. It had been on the way during the day. The break on the wire which raises and lowers the bucket in mines not supplied with steam power, was held in its place by a rope. This had become very wet and of course relaxed its tension. Fox had hardly taken his place in the bucket before he went careering like lightning down the shaft, dropping 175 feet. The break was absolutely useless and down, down hurried the bucket and man, bumping now against one side and now against the other, until finally both struck the two-inch planking which covered the wall. The bucket was smashed to pieces, and poor Charles plunged through the two inch planking as though it had been paste-board, into the well. This was six or eight feet deep. He sank to the bottom and when he arose, was hauled out by his comrades who were working in the level.

The mystery of the business is that although Fox was pretty thoroughly jarred and bruised, a broken ankle was the only serious injury resulting from the fall.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick, widow lady residing at Orono, was burned in a shocking manner on Wednesday night, and died from the effects of her injuries yesterday morning.

On Saturday last a span of horses, owned by Charles Preston, fell into a well near Fleming's Hotel, in Garafaxa, and when taken out one of them was dead.

Ottawa, Ontario, Nov. 25, 1871. My Dear Sir—We have much pleasure in informing you of a large demand for your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, and we hear excellent accounts from those who use it. Some of our physicians who are acquainted with its valuable properties consider it a most reliable medicine; so it is fast becoming as popular in this part of the Dominion as with your own people.

Wishing you every success, we are yours, very respectfully, A. CHRISTIE & Co., Chemists. To Mr. James I. Epps, St. John, N.B.

Breakfast—Epps's Cocoa—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills.—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with Boiling Water or Milk. Each packet is labelled—"JAMES EPPS & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London."

MANUFACTURE OF COCOA.—"We will not give an account of the process adopted by Messrs. James Epps & Co., manufacturers of dietetic articles, at their works in the Euston Road, London."—See article in Cassell's Household Guide. 3206mdw

THE STOMACH AND ITS DERANGEMENTS are the common cause of most of the chronic wasting diseases for which invivables are constantly seeking remedies. When the food is imperfectly digested and assimilated, the blood becomes impoverished, and all the organs and tissues of the body are debilitated by want of nourishment. The general depravity of the system manifests itself in some constitutions by disease of the Lungs, Heart, Liver, or Kidneys, and in others by scrofulous enlargement of the glands, eruptions of the skin, ulcers of nose and flesh, spinal weakness, irregularities, exhausting discharges, nervous prostration, mental anxiety, neuritic and rheumatic pains, all of which arise from depraved nutrition. To invigorate the stomach and perfect digestion, and the formation of healthy blood, Dr. Wessler's Compound Elixir of Blood, and Callava is of great efficacy. It is a safe, pleasant, and permanent in its effects.

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.
