Opposition.

A Portion of Crown Prince Constantine's Staff Recalled.

London, April 27 .- In the House of Commons, the Liberal leader, Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt, asked Right Hon. A. J. Balfour whether the Government would make a statement in relation to the Turkish-Greek war, and the policy of the Government in relation thereto, and whether a British force was still engaged in the blockade of the Island of Crete.

Mr. Balfour replied that her Majesty's Government, like the Governments of the rest of the powers, had agreed upon an attitude of neutrality. Of course, he added, the Government was desirous, so soon as a favorable opportunity presented itself, offices as a mediator. Referring to war is to be continued and the Crete, Mr. Balfour said the powers, Prince retained in command. having assumed the occupation of Crete before the war, had determined that the island should be considered neutral, and the blockade maintained in order to prevent opposition to their authority. Mr. George N. Curzon, replying to a question regarding the treatment of prisoners on either side in the war between Turkey and Greece. said the Foreign Office had no information corroborating or denying the reports of Turkish ill-treatment of Greek prisoners or of Greek ill-treatment of Turkish prisoners. THE FALL OF LARISSA.

REVOLUTIONARY FEELING IN ATHENS. London, April 27 .- The most serious feature in the Graeco-Turkish emergency is the revolutionary feeling disprayed at Athens. Delyannis, keenly alive to the necessity of immediate action, had an audience with the King, and after the interview announced that the staff of the Crown Prince would be recalled, and ex-Minister Ralli, with of his nominees, Gen. Smolenski, Gen. Mavromichali and Col. Dimopoulo would be appointed to replace them. M. Ralli, in a published interview, ays: "The moment Prince Constantine arrived at the seat of war, the sole thought of the responsible commanders was not to attack or to with-stand the Turks, but to effect a safe retreat if necessary. All orders emanated from the palace. Those issued by anyone else were ignored. When diswere sent to Gen. Mayromichali, he was not where he was sup posed to be, having been moved on by superior orders."

HOSTILITY TO THE PALACE PARTY.

London, April 27 .- The Daily Telegraph's Athens correspondent says to-day: All of M. Ralli's conditions have been accepted. The King gave a carte blanche to his Ministers. As the public begins to learn the truth, anger against the palace party increases, and a feeling of hostility against M. Delyannis is steadily growing. Late last night (Monday) crowds were parading menacingly in the vicinity of the palace. It is reported on good authority that arrangements are being made to enable the royal family to leave the ountry hastily in case of necessity. People had generally credited the ru mors that the Crown Prince would b recalled, and that the Government was willing to consider peace overto do what it can to offer its good will happen when it is known that the war is to be continued and the Crown
